

The first ad of the couple 'Apple & Beats'

To commemorate the day Beats officially became a subsidiary of Apple, Beats' official Twitter account uploaded a fun ad clip using Siri and the Beats Pill Speaker to discuss this compromise.

To commemorate the day Beats officially became a subsidiary of Apple, Beats' official Twitter account uploaded a fun ad clip using Siri and the Beats Pill Speaker to "discuss" this compromise.

The end of the video is a short piece to make fun and means that " Siri doesn't always work best ".

Although this Tweet was later deleted, we are fortunate to still be able to watch it on Youtube.

Please watch this fun video!
