

The first drug data bank in Vietnam, helping people look up information and prices of more than 10,000 drugs

On the afternoon of August 12, the Ministry of Health published the Pharmaceutical Data Bank, allowing anyone to look up information of each drug in Vietnam through the website or on the mobile application.

On the afternoon of August 12, the Ministry of Health published the Pharmaceutical Data Bank, allowing anyone to look up information of each drug in Vietnam through the website or on the mobile application.

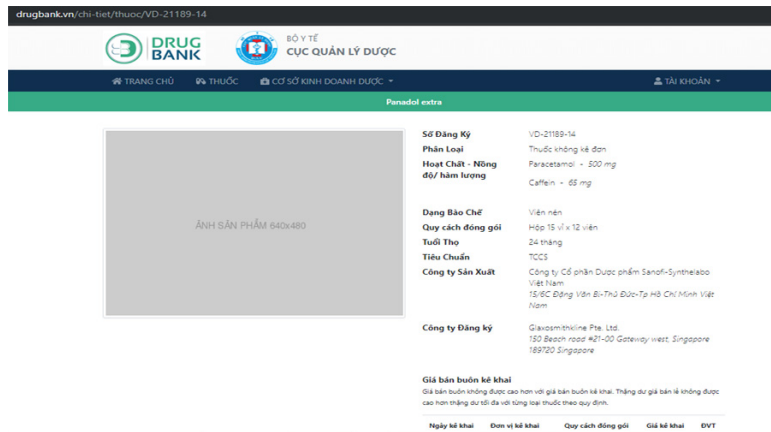

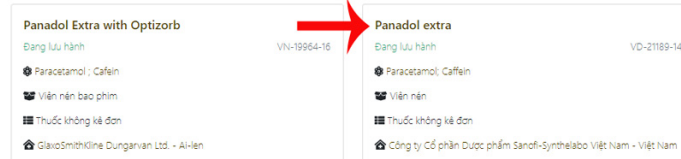

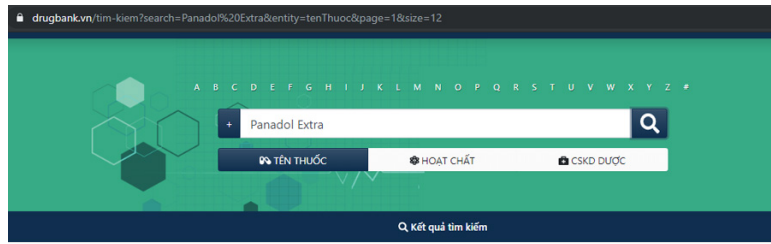

This is the official pharmaceutical database system of the pharmaceutical industry containing information of more than 10,000 drugstores in circulation in Vietnam, nearly 41,000 drug production and distribution establishments and the list of pharmacists who have been granted operating certificates. profession.

Users can search information about drugs by visiting Drugbank.vn website or via mobile application to learn about the origin, price, usage, GPP standard pharmacy system . This helps patients with knowledge to use safe drugs, avoid overuse of drugs, buy non-originating drugs and misuse drugs.

Website interface of pharmaceutical data bank, Ministry of Health.

According to Mr. Vu Tuan Cuong, Director of the Drug Administration of Vietnam, the data bank of the pharmaceutical industry was born not only to bring benefits to the people but also help agencies to manage and monitor quality and drug prices. , status of drug distribution and circulation; Help your doctor update the latest information about drugs to offer the best treatment for patients.

This is the first time that the pharmaceutical industry has an official database, providing a medical reference tool for the community, marking a new milestone in drug management in Vietnam.

1. From 1/8 network operators will block and cancel the number of non-registered subscribers
2. The Ministry of Transport officially issued and changed the driver's license online from November 2019

You finished reading the article "The first drug data bank in Vietnam, helping people look up information and prices of more than 10,000 drugs" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.