Recalling the time of school

Sit with your friend 'Hoai Linh' mouthful

Learning, not learning to hug each other
Maybe stop cutting the wind
This poem cuts 10 times more!
Going to school is like going to trade
The teacher reminded him: 'Always keep the mouth'
But I got a clear idea
To the homeroom is to sit still
Ly is a tall bamboo
Take out the washing lesson to do the quiz
45 minutes to sit and talk
I sit, I yawn, I sleep, do it
Ms. Van likes to write
Copy and copy to think about it
Miss Su thought even more
Very good quizzes of what was old
Hello, Miss Dia please
Rain and earthquake did not spare you
Miss Hoa is very complaining
Openly talking is la is hoppers
My little stature is slim
But glancing at me, the whole group was silent
My school is telling the truth 'only'
English to understand, to stop the human language
Mr. NGUYEN fitness or laugh
But move one 'ten laps for me'

Mr. Phu sat laughing haha

'I ran away, 2 guys died together'

Math teacher kept calling

Being quiet like that just called out the name

On the board stammered, moaning: 'I have stifled, still calling (me) to play'

The news is always worried

I don't know what he gives me

Sinh Sinh knew what to do

'Genitalia, keep laughing'

The homeroom teacher is very fresh

'An 8 week error out of sweeping the yard'

4, 5 guys are very diligent

Scattered all the time, still sweeping the yard!

Funny Poetry November 20 Humor

People go to meetings and are happy
And I went to the meeting in my heart!
After speaking around
Gently take the 'step' step forward
Put on your mother's neck
A lot of things sounded cold.
Not awake but still forced to smile
After the meeting, the ten found fire!

Funny poetry: He gives up three classes

A very smart student
Good scientific response from criticism
The principal also approved
Tell the teacher about the problem around us
The teacher returned to the quiz: 'What is it widening when married?'
The principal was like a grown man
But the game is calm like nothing
Her bed is still spent
The smaller the thing, the bigger?
The Principal worried
The smaller the crab, the bigger you are!
What is in you?

Year-round wet water out constantly?

The red-faced Headmaster

Miss, the tongue is constantly wet.

Something soft, tar oil

In her hand, stroking a hard head?

The principal sweated

Dear nail oil . paint it!

Something like a banana

Putting on a little saliva wet mem?

The headmaster was wet

The game is about to show you all.

The principal came to his senses

That the teacher recruited straight up three classes

Now she asked repeatedly

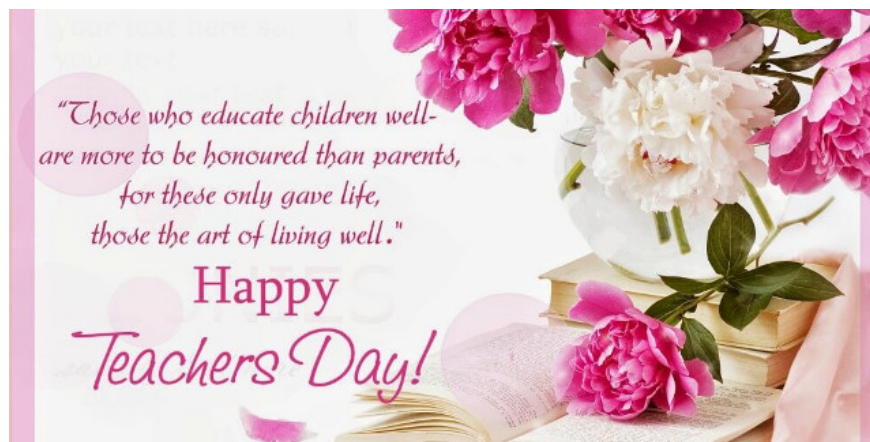

But he could not answer any sentence.

It is true that high youth resources

Any answer like that . is wrong ????

Who gave the second answer

Just like the principal thinking about it.

Poem: Self-assessment of trigonometry

Begins in mid-March

The amount of time to study is really good

When I first learned it was ok

After learning, you can beat the topic more easily

Threads are only slippery

This amount brings the soul of regression

What does the coefficient mean?

Make inflation in different periods

Knowing that, take care of studying soon

For now, it will be less painful

Take the flood test on the same day

Read the hegemony to write down the issue immediately

Play to the point of being bored

Just go out and bring back point 5

Score 5 is also very difficult

With someone who is 'good at studying' like me

The marking is also miserable

Give teachers a moment of laughter.

Poem: Application for permission to leave school by poetry

Today I wrote this application,

Please rest for a day of nursing

I still miss school

But health risks are unpredictable.

All night I have a fever,

The forehead is hot and weak

The school would have to suspend.

In order to treat even the ascension.

The notes will be copied immediately

I'm sorry to bother teachers!

Poem: Sometimes the exam room

It was sunny for the spring afternoon

This sadness we know with anyone

Does the problem not know right and wrong?

He quietly submitted two blank papers

A few words of poetry, whether the teacher scolded

Are there disciplines or just exam papers?

White paper, pen full of ink still write

A few words to speak with stress!

PS: I submitted the white paper and this is just a few words of hope marking teachers feel happy because of what I write.

I would like to accept score 0 and study again.

Poem: Mood waiting for the bell

Suddenly, I don't want to copy

So write some verses

Write until time runs out
The bell rings for a holiday
Life is very contradictory
Bitter and bitter humiliatingly
The clock bell kept spinning
But the bell did not spill .
Wind on the glue
Hard working friends solicit 'hybrid'
Some children work hard to write articles
Where did yawn yawn and wait for the bell
Knowledge like girls .
It is okay to eat in without letting go
Time please drift fast
Last time the bell rang for him to graduate
Return to the homeland
Follow the duck's foot to the road, go to the dike
Come back late at night
The by throwing away, coffee life .

Poem: The impromptu poetry hours of Math exam

I'm not in the mood to do math today.
The excitement made some verses for her to hear.
Hanoi monsoon, it is cold
Street heavy, lightheadedness
Lightheaded by remembering, remember 'bear'?
Bear, bear, come back to me!
It was autumn, sad Thursday morning.
