

The legendary Shironeko has passed away, and the family chose the 18th 'birthday' to announce the sad news

On March 2, the lovely cat Shironeko from Japan and famous worldwide has passed away.

In 2006, a picture of a cat with white yellow fur and a face always in a "sleepy" state appeared online and received the love of many people. That is Shironeko.

Since its popularity, Shironeko is considered by many to be the most comfortable living cat in the world. Because Shiro has eyes that never open and can sleep at all times.

In addition to her eyes, Shironeko is also lovely because of her fat body as well as her white fur. Shironeko sleeps everywhere, from the garden to the house, from the table to the floor and even in the grocery bag. In general, wherever the cat is comfortable sleeping.

As of March 2, Shironeko has been sleeping the eternal sleep of her life, aged 18. However, until today (March 8), right on the birthday of Shiro, the cat's family decided to announce the sad news.

Sleep, sleep and . sleep.

In Vietnam, Shironeko is often favored by netizens with names like "sleeping cat", "lazy cat" or . "buttock". Shironeko's fanpage in Vietnam has reached nearly 200,000 followers. However, the admin of the fanpage also passed away last year, so the page is no longer active.

The final images of Shironeko have revealed signs of age.

You finished reading the article "The legendary Shironeko has passed away, and the family chose the 18th 'birthday' to announce the sad news" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

© 2019 TipsMake.com