Like other chess games with dignity, these generals will belong to different tribes and when you rank generals with the same clan. They will have a synergistic buff and will gain bonus stats.

For example, if you have 3 generals or clan generals, they will have buffs of synergies and separate clan for the generals of that clan, or buffs for the team. This synergy buff can be armor, attack speed, dodge, increase health, increase mana .

Each general will be classified according to the rank (Tier) from the cheapest to expensive generals. And the generals can also combine into 2 or 3 stars to increase the stats.

Thus, we will have a list of familiar names in Lien Lien Mobile. These coalition "dignity" generals will also have the skills that they often use in Mobile Union. Hopefully in the near future we will know the clan of the generals above.
