5 locations loot map in Sanhok map

1. Ruins

It is an abandoned temple in the map, containing many weapons. The area has a flat terrain, so it is easy for players to face each other. So players need to be careful when loot items.

2. Docks

In this position, gamers will often apply far-away loot tactics and limit touching each other as much as possible. There are many containers of containers containing weapons, accessories and other equipment for gamers to search for. In case of attack, it can be hidden beside large container containers.

3. Pai Nan

Pai Nan is a central town on the river side. Although this place has a very unfavorable terrain for players, you should also try to come down here to see if loot. The number of items in Pain Nan is not too small for us to collect.

4. Paradise Resort

The resort is also the location of frequent gamers to search for items. It is estimated that about 1/5 of the players jump here, out of the total number of players parachuting down.

As soon as you set foot in this land, players can get a lot of good things for themselves. A trick when looting things at Paradise Resort is to pick up the pistols because there are many large buildings here, often going to fight constantly in these large buildings.

5. Bootcamp

Bootcamp was dubbed the most fierce fighting map of Sanhok, and compared to other maps in the game. Most gamers will choose to drop down on Bootcamp, regardless of how long the flight is.

This is a training camp so the terrain will be flat, weapons are extremely much for you to loot full of backpacks. Another reason for Bootcamp is the choice of many players, that is, there are many fighting houses, shielding objects, tower buildings for snipers to bring down opponents from above.

These are the 5 ideal loot locations in PUBG Mobile's Sanhok map. Of course, where any good loot is, there will be many battles going on, danger surrounding it so the player needs to be very careful when loot.
