ABOUT US

Get to know the world's leading architectural firm

Archibald Architect Firm has been around since 1984, providing for and working closely with numerous clients and suppliers.

We have managed to establish and secure professional connections with suppliers, architectural firms, investors, and a myriad of other individuals and companies who are able to assist us in providing clients with exceptional products and services that are of top quality to create equally superior architectural structures.

Archibald Architect Firm was founded by Mr. Christopher Archibald and Mr. George Archibald, who were both white and well-known architects of their time.

The two founders opened up the firm's first branches in San Jose, California in October 11, 1994 and about one month later in a city and gave the firm a lot of prospective investors in 2010.

The firm has gained a wide amount of praise since then, adding to its mission of providing top notch architectural supplies and services at the most reasonable price points possible without having to sacrifice quality.

Having first started with only 10 staff members, it has grown over into nearly 500 members from a myriad of architects, interior designers, modeling staff, and other team members who are very passionate about their architecture.

"We provide quality and execute efficiency."
Christopher Archibald, CEO

Today, the firm is proud to say that it has generated a good reputation among a large percentage of all of its clients over the past years. More than 87% of clients have given us 5 star ratings and over 90% of the architectural projects we have been involved in are still standing and are in good condition.
