Female layer hair is one of the hottest hairstyles in 2020, which is fascinated by many women. So, what hairstyle is female layer trimmed hair, female layer hair is suitable for any face?

What is female layer hair?

Thinning layer or leaf hair is a hairstyle in which the curls will be trimmed alternately into large, alternating and overlapping strands, the tail is trimmed completely or slightly elected.

Advantages of the hair layer

1. Helping your hair look thicker, bouncier should be considered a savior for thin-haired girls.
2. Suitable for all subjects from lightness to personality and suitable for many fashion styles.
3. Helps balance the proportions of the face, conceals the defects and edges on the face.
4. Layer hairstyle is easy to create, variable in many styles.

Hair layer suitable for which face?

Layer trimming hairstyles suitable for girls with thin faces, or high forehead, long face, will help conceal the blemishes and highlight the beauty on the face.

Those with round, short, or square faces should not wear this hairstyle because it will cause the face to stretch and shorten.
