

The precious travel experience for those who first arrive in Oakland, California

Not only is the 8th largest city of California state, Oakland is also legally named as the home of hell gods.

Not only is the 8th largest city of California state, Oakland is also legally named as the home of hell gods . And if those who have the opportunity to travel to this city, please experience the precious travel experiences in the article below.

What to see and do in Oakland?

Enjoy an art show or a movie

Oakland has long been known for its 'moderne' style cinemas and unique curved neon lights. Here you can watch children's movies and even world-class glamorous films like The Wizard of Oz, if you can, you can choose to go to Grank Lake cinema .

If you are an art fan, you can go to the Fox Theater to see the city performers perform the once-in-a-lifetime musicals as well as the vibrant traditional Disco dance that is no stranger to art. contemporary world.

Look at the shops in Temescal Alley

Temescal Alley is the name of a small town, which is famous for its shops that sell a variety of different items.

To this small town, visitors can watch or buy good books at second-hand bookstores, take commemorative photos at studios, buy jewelry, handicrafts, fabrics, cool fashion clothes. Nice, very affordable price or always convenient, if you like, you can go to the art salon at small shops in the alley 49 of the neighborhood. These hair salons are known as Oakland's most famous city.

Visit the theme park

Another experience not to be missed when it comes to Oakland is the theme park. For only $ 10, visitors can buy tickets and visit Fairyland, the city's most famous theme park. Here, you can freely immerse yourself in the 'place of solemnity', fairy tales, Disneyland-inspired themes and works.

Children come here indifferently strolling into the area of ??Wonderland fairy, Peter Rabbit. In addition, there are also water puppet shows and art light water show performances, grass slides, the park offers a variety of services for people, all ages to visit.

In addition, Oakland also built a unique zoo for $ 17.75 for adults and children at $ 13.75, in addition to admiring wild animals like lions, monkeys, giraffes. . full of categories, tourists and children can take a relaxing walk on the tops of green and poetic hills or take a car tour around the zoo, looking far away at the Golden Gate Bridge and watching Beautiful view from the San Francisco skyline.

Visit the fair to show street art shows

For a long time, Oakland has a special tradition not everywhere. And on the first Friday of each month, the city government organizes the latest food exhibitions and street art exhibitions . Many local food trucks in nearby areas and alleys pour in rush, unique works and new art shows are brought to perform in a bustling space with the participation of many people including many foreign tourists come.

Eat local dishes

The western part of Oakland city is known as the regional culinary paradise , which converges many different large and small eateries, offering many dishes from high-class retirees, all kinds of services to tourists. Foreign countries come from different regions and countries.

According to local people in the area, the restaurants here are famous for European and Japanese dishes and the most popular is the unique local dishes such as fried chicken meat served with corn flour waffles and apple and rib syrup. Grilled gold with buckwheat flour.

Where to rest?

At the end of a tired day but full of interesting experiences, you want to choose a resting place? Don't go far, go to the city's famous Waterfront Hotel . This hotel was founded a long time ago, bearing the classic botique architectural design, and has become the symbol of the city's most powerful renaissance. Room rates range from $ 209 per night.

In addition to the luxurious, luxurious, beautiful panoramic view rooms, relaxing times, guests can sunbathe on the rooftop terrace, or swim in an outdoor pool under the golden sunshine of Oakland city.

Huynh Dung (According to Guardian)

You finished reading the article "The precious travel experience for those who first arrive in Oakland, California" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.