

The rifle for the desert map PUBG Mobile

Updating the desert map in PUBG Mobile will make players need to change techniques as well as how to fight.

PUBG Mobile has updated the desert map with terrain completely different from the first terrain of the game. Instead of being run in places where there are many hiding places, fields, forests, sacral maps will be mostly deserted. There are not many forests for players to hide due to arid land, mostly sand and gravel.

Because of this change, gamers need to change their battle tactics, as well as which guns to use. Please refer to the 4 types of rifles to use in the desert map on PUBG Mobile.

4 best rifles for PUBG Mobile

1. Automatic rifle

AKM is famous for its ability at a very good distance, with a range of about 60, and has the strongest attack power in the game. The only drawback of AKM is that the recoil is relatively high, but if there are accessories and know how to shoot, it will reduce the recoil considerably.

Release each bullet by pressing it quickly so that the bullet fires more stable.

M16A4 possesses many advantages such as mid-range damage, high firing rate, high precision shooting ability. You can also use M16A4 at long range. Should include a barrel of view x4, x8 to shoot more standard.

2. Sniper gun wall

Mini 14 has high stability, no need to use any accessories. However, the Mini 14 is not appreciated for power, but you can still take advantage of the ability to shoot well with long range, if adding x4 or x8, it will increase your chances of destroying the enemy a lot.

SKS possesses fast continuous shooting ability, selected by many gamers in the current line of firing rifles. Fully equipped accessories for guns to increase stability when shooting.

SKS

DMR

Each weapon, each type of gun will have certain advantages and limitations. On PUBG Mobile, the number of guns you have a chance to own is relatively high, and the use of guns at any time will help players take advantage of their opponents.
