

The secrets never revealed about Area 51, the top secret US military base

This area has existed for a long time, but in 2013, the US Government recognized its existence.

Area 51 is said to be the most mysterious military area in the world . This area has existed for a long time, but in 2013, the US Government recognized its existence. However, all activities of this area are still kept private.

Here are the secrets that have never been revealed about the top secret US Area 51:

1. It is thought that even every movement of a fly can be tracked throughout the area 51.

This is not too overstated. Because this area was attached to a lot of motion sensors and security guards wearing desert-style camouflage ("cammo dudes") everywhere.

2. Area 51 used to have different names.

Area 51 is located in the middle of the remote Nevada desert, and used to have many different names to hide the purpose of operations such as: Paradise Ranch (Paradise Ranch), Home Base, Town Town (Water Town, Promised Land (Dreamland).

Area 51 is located in the middle of the wilderness.

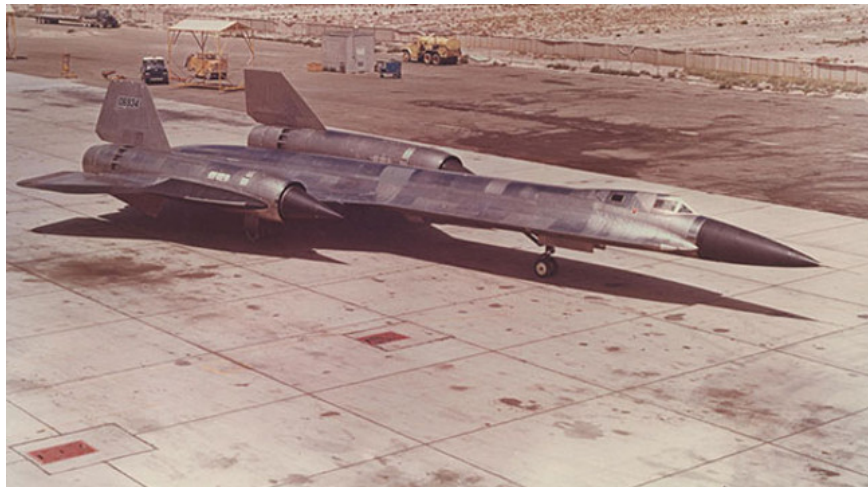

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has always emphasized the true name of Area 51 as Homey Airport (Homey Airport), or Lake Groom (Groom Lake).

Area 51 was the first name written by the agency in a document before 1975.

3. A-12 reconnaissance aircraft has advanced technology developed in Area 51

After decades of Cold War, reports revealed evidence of the existence of A-12 spy planes. According to the document, A-12 reconnaissance aircraft can reach 3,500 km / h and ground radar cannot be detected.

To avoid being detected, photographed and videotaped, the A-12 reconnaissance aircraft was only tested during the night on a 2.7km runway.

The aircraft was developed and tested in Area 51.

4. In April 1955, during the time of President Dwight Eisenhower, CIA operated Area 51 to develop and test reconnaissance aircraft in a secret project called Aquatone .

5. The airspace of Area 51 stretches over an area of ??about 37 to 40 km.

Any pilot discovered illegally above or through this area will be sentenced by a military court, likely to be discharged because of a dishonorable discharge violation and may even have to in prison.

6. Area 51 has a cement tennis court, a private bowling alley and a baseball team. These are their only forms of entertainment. Because radio waves are hard to pass through the mountains and TV is not allowed here.

7. A buffet with lobster and oysters is available every week in Area 51.

8. Despite being strictly protected "internal realities, foreign realities " but still does not prevent people constantly arguing about UFOs, aliens and mysterious activities in it.
