

The top 9 Bitcoin and cryptocurrency investment websites today

Bitcoin and cryptocurrencies could be a major revolution in the world. Here is a list of the top 10 Bitcoin and cryptocurrency investment websites today.

1. Coinbase

Coinbase is by far the most popular because you can invest directly in USD. You can currently buy Bitcoin, Ethereum and Litecoin, along with more than 30 other currencies and tokens on the platform. Furthermore, you can earn interest on your USDT and you can earn token rewards by completing various activities.

Plus, when you open a Coinbase account, you'll get a $ 5 bonus!

2. Gemini

Gemini is a popular platform for investing in cryptocurrencies, as it focuses on security and transparency. Unlike some exchanges that appear vulnerable, Gemini aims to protect its customers.

Gemini is one of the only exchanges that offers FDIC protection against USD deposits. They also now support DOGE.

Plus, when you open a Gemini account and deposit $ 100, you'll get a $ 10 bonus!

3. BlockFi

BlockFi is a cryptocurrency investment platform that allows you to lend and earn interest on your holdings. In addition, instead of selling cryptocurrencies and tokens, you can also borrow with the money you hold.

If you just want to keep tokens, you can also let them make money for you.

4. Kraken

Kraken is one of the first cryptocurrency trading platforms and has a good selection of money and tokens to trade and invest in. Kraken also allows margin trading. However, it's a real exchange and not as easy to use as some of the top platforms on this list.

Kraken is one of the few platforms on this list that allows you to trade with DOGE and other, more risky tokens.

5. Robinhood

Robinhood offers free cryptocurrency transactions on their platform. The service has only just started in a few states and is only applicable to Bitcoin and Ethereum, but are planning to expand this quickly. There are limitations, but the good news is it's free!

Plus, when you open a Robinhood account, you'll get a free share of stocks!

6. eToro

eToro has been around for some time in the UK and across Europe, but currently also allows traders in the US. eToro offers a wide variety of digital assets to buy and sell on their platform, and better yet, they have a real trading account so you can try it out before actually using real money.

Right now, eToro is offering a bonus of $ 50 to new clients opening accounts and trading in cryptocurrencies worth $ 1000 before May 15, 2021.

7. Crypto

Crypto is one of the largest and fastest growing cryptocurrency exchanges. It is headquartered in Hong Kong, but offers a lot of support for customers in the United States.

Right now, you can have access to more than 90 tokens and cryptocurrencies around the world, along with 50 other tokens and coins if you're in the United States. Plus, this offer provides a stable rate on a crypto savings account.

The only major drawback is that it is app-based only at the moment, not desktop-based.

8. Binance

This is a great platform to participate in some currencies like Cardano or Neo. Not as easy to use as some of the top platforms on this list, but they do have one of the most powerful trading platforms out there. Binance has a good mobile app, but it's not easy to use, and many have been disappointed with it.

9. Hodlnaut

Hodlnaut makes a difference by becoming a cryptocurrency lending platform, allowing you to earn substantial interest from your crypto holdings. It doesn't support as many tokens as the other options on this list, but offers some of the highest rates compared to other platforms. Furthermore, Hodlnaut also offers digital asset loans on their platform.
