

The trick to 'transform' the Lock screen of Windows 11 is more diverse

The Lock Screen screen on Windows 11 is quite simple, it only displays the wallpaper, the time.. In order to make the lock screen in the latest version of Microsoft more interesting and customizable, please follow the steps below. steps below.

With just a few simple steps, you can customize the lock screen on Windows 11 as you like.

Instructions to customize the Lock screen lock screen on Windows 11.

Step 1: Open the Settings app > Select Personalization > Lockscreen

Step 2: At Personalization your lock screen > Select Windows Spotlight. This feature will display beautiful new wallpapers provided by Microsoft itself.

- If you want to customize the wallpaper separately according to your preferences, you can choose Personalization your lock screen > Picture > Browse photos > Then select the photo you want to use at the Lock screen.

- Or you can also select multiple photos for the Lock screen to show in Slide format by Personalize your lock screen > select Slideshow. At the Add an album for your slideshow> Continue to select Browse and point to the correct folder of images that you want to display on the Lock screen.

- In addition, you can also choose some applications to display on the Lock screen. In the Lock screen status section > Select the application to be displayed on the Lock screen (Weather, Main, Calendar).

You finished reading the article "The trick to 'transform' the Lock screen of Windows 11 is more diverse" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.