The Bermuda Triangle and the Egyptian pyramid are famous for their unanswered mysteries that are known to the world. Song at Mapimí Silent Zone, a mysterious land in Mexico known as the "silent zone" also contains a lot of mysteries that make scientists headaches.

Mapimí Silent Zone: The terrestrial "Bermuda Triangle"

Mapimí Silent Zone is a desert area near Bolsón de Mapimí, in the Mexican state of Durango. This strange land was discovered in 1930, by Francisco Sarabia, a Mexican pilot. Here, there are no signs of human life such as houses and people. All reptiles only, fibrous plants and desert wind blow all year round.

The name " silent zone " comes from the strange characteristics of the place. In this area, all radio signals, satellite signals, shortwave and telephone waves . cannot be penetrated.

Not only that, there are also a number of inexplicable singularities that many people call Mapimí Silent Zone as the terrestrial " Bermuda triangle " in Mexico.

Mysterious stories revolve around terrestrial "Bermuda triangle"

Francisco Sarabia's discovery and the concept of "Silence zone"

In 1930, on a flight test of speed from Mexico City (Mexico) to New York (USA), pilot Francisco Sarabia noticed that his radio system had lost its functioning mysteriously. After many flights, he identified the mysterious land and decided to go to the place to find out.

When traveling to this area, Francisco Sarabia was amazed to discover that radio signals were disabled making it impossible to spread in the air, so he called the area "Silent Zone" (Silent Zone).

Later, Mexican scientists thought that this area might have been located millions of years ago . the bottom of an ocean should be called " Silence Zone " with another name " Thetys Sea ".

The meteorite was sucked into the "Silent Zone" like a magnet

After the announcement of the " Silent Zone ", the study of this mysterious land was conducted by leading scientists. And surprisingly, research has found that a large number of meteorites have fallen in this area.

The hypothesis is that it appears that " Silent Zone " has a huge form of vortex energy, capable of "sucking" meteorites and space debris.

In this area, meteorites and space debris seem to be "sucked" in like magnets.(Illustration).

Not only are radio waves disabled, meteorites are sucked like magnets, at " Silent Zone " also triggers a top-secret mystery event for the US Air Force.

On July 11, 1970, the US Air Force launched a test of a missile named Athena from the Green River military base (Utah). As planned, the rocket is programmed to ground about 1,126km away (at the location is White Sands, New Mexico state, USA).

But the missile flew over the White Sands thousands of kilometers away, headed straight for Mexico's " Silence Zone ". Many military experts said that the missile Athena was drawn to some " Silent Zone " by some attraction.

When found after three weeks of searching, Athena was only a rubble and a small amount of radioactive soil.

Appearing strange alien creatures

Before the mysterious and strange things that happened here, the Mexican government built a research area near the " Silence Zone ".

Also starting from here, many unusual cases are recounted by witnesses:

According to the forest guards near "Silent Zone ", one night they saw vertical flying objects hovering in this area and emitting a series of mysterious lights. The next morning, at the place where the light is emitted, trees often burn or have black marks on the ground.

Another story is also very thrilling by the owner of a nearby farm. This person said that their family had been visited by 3 strange creatures , even they could speak the native language. The only thing they want is a lot of water instead of asking for food or anything else.

Many believe that the " Silent Zone " is one of the locations created by aliens to make the alien UFO " reception station " to Earth.

The authenticity of these stories has not been tested correctly. But when a series of waves can't "intrude" on "Silent Zone" as well as objects (such as rockets, meteors) like being "sucked" here, this land has hidden secrets that need to be solved. It was logical.

Unfortunately, after nearly 86 years of discovering " Silence Zone ", the scientific community has yet to get explanations for the mysteries in this strange land.

Alien base on Earth?

In the process of studying the mysteries at " Silence Zone ", scientists discovered an extremely unusual trait, an unexpected coincidence.

The coordinates of "Silence Zone" (at latitude 26 degrees north) are parallel to Bermuda's " demon triangle " and Egyptian pyramids (these two locations are at the 28th parallel north)!

" Silence zone " an area where sound waves cannot penetrate. Bermuda's " demon triangle " region in the western Atlantic Ocean is the "grave" of boats and airplanes when it comes here. The world's oldest hundred-ton monolithic building series (Egyptian pyramids) are closely linked.

3 mysterious lands located on at least 2 different continents are located on 2 parallel lines on the coordinates of Earth is it a coincidence or because of the arrangement of aliens?
