A few ways to get weird but effective in the Truth Arena

Volibear + Exaggerated Guinsoo + Dalian

This way of making up the clothes created by the Truth Arena gamers, many people consider it to be extremely effective and famous in the past time.

The Grand Master will help Volibear help you attack at a safe distance. Next attack speed will be increased continuously thanks to the effect of Guinsoo Blade. Volibear can stand in one place and attack the entire squad when activating his skills.

In addition, if you have good dignity, you will have a Ice Nation combo, Volibear can still cause a continuous freezing effect. However, you should also equip Volibear with a protective equipment for this champion to avoid shock damage because he is not really buffered by cattle.

Anonymous Sword + Electric Knife Statikk

If you have a squad of 4 to 6 Gunners, this is a very weird way to equip your equipment, but it will be scary for any enemy you encounter.

Knife Power Statikk will help you inflict additional damage on each of the 3 attacks, helping Gunner generals increase the chance of being fired one more hit on the target during normal attacks. This is the point that will help you activate the internal of this equipment.

The remaining equipment is the Anonymous Sword which will add to the champion once and only for the Sword Generation. Imagine when the Swordsman and Gunner are activated at the same time how everything will be released.

And everything will be even more perfect when players equip themselves with a controlled item. For example (Sword Curve, Sword, Silent) to control, then the Gunner only stands and deals damage.

Dragon Claw + Ghost Dance Song Sword + Blood Armor Warmog

Swipe the Dragon, equipment is indispensable when confronting the formation with magic damage. If this equipment is combined with Ma Vu Song Kiem, most of the damage will be immune. At this time, those who are equipped with these two abilities will only be given a small amount of physical damage and magic damage.

In addition, Warmog Blood Armor will also restore heroes who are equipped with up to 6% of their health after being buffed in version 9.14. This "item" seems to be an indispensable equipment for tankers to increase the "buffalo" part.

If Braum is equipped with these 3 equipment, the enemy formation will be quite hard to defeat him, now the damage-causing generals standing behind only need to release the damage.

Aatrox / Miss Fortune + Yuumi + The Divine Ancestor + Witch Hat Rabadon

Two nominated names for this combo are none other than Miss Fortune or Aatrox because only two new generals can exert the full power of this great combo.

However, the necessary condition is that the player needs to have 5 Magicians, an Aatrox 2 stars or more. If you have Miss Fortune, it's too great, otherwise it's okay.

Yuumi will be tasked with turning Miss Fortune or Aatrox into a Witch and adding the final 6 combo of the Wizard and gaining 100% more damage.

Equipped with the Great Angel's Staff will give the generals a great source of mana to be able to use more skill. The Magician's system will also double the amount of energy used when dealing with normal attacks. Feel the power of these 2 generals when you have this equipment combo.

It is possible that the entrance of the Truth Arena in this article is a bit "weird" but in fact it will help your team stand up in the game.
