

Svechinskaya is said to have opened at least five bank accounts in her name and her aliases like Anastasia Opokina and Svetlana Makarova, of which $ 35,000 in stolen money has been transferred.

Russian beauties are facing 40 years of imprisonment on charges of bank fraud and fake passports.

Svechinskaya is said to be among the students from Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan and Belarus recruited for fraudulent lines through advertisements in newspapers and social networks.

US prosecutor Preet Bharara, Manhattan said: 'The digital age that brings us to create many benefits is also full of challenges for financial institutions and supervisors'.

The arrest shows that 'high-tech, high-tech bank robberies do not need guns, face masks or vehicles to escape. High-tech criminals only need computers and sophistication. Everything can be done in a flash, with just one click.'

You finished reading the article "The world's hottest 'hackers' go to court" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.