

These scary numbers are haunting all over the world

Besides the number 13, the number represents the misfortune, death, and the other 9 numbers are the horrors of many people around the world. Why are these numbers considered to be bad, unfortunate points?

Besides the number 13, the number represents the misfortune, death, and the other 9 numbers are the horrors of many people around the world. Why are these numbers considered to be bad, unfortunate points?

1. Why is Friday 13th considered "unlucky day"?
2. Decipher the mystery of pig birds, birds signal death

1. 39 is a scary figure in Afghanistan

Going to Afghanistan, especially in Kabul, you will not see the arrival of number 39 on hotel rooms, mobile phone numbers or home phones, even home addresses.

Those who unfortunately have the number 39 on the phone number will have to change the number or use the hidden function when calling other people or nobody will dare to answer the phone when they call. If the license plate has a number, they will sell the car at a low price or find a way to fix the number 39 into 38.

Even people here never say their true age when they are 39 years old. When asked the age, they will avoid avoiding the 39 as "I am nearly 40" or "I'm 38 years old".

2. Phone number deadly 0888 888 888 in Bulgaria

Mobitel telecommunications company in Bulgaria had to stop providing phone number 0888 888 888 after three owners who used it were unfortunately dead within 10 years.

The first owner of this frightening phone number was Vladimir Grashnov, former Mobitel chief executive, where the number 0888 888 888 was issued. In 2001, Grashnov died of cancer when he was only 48 years old, but Many people believe that he was poisoned by radioactive substances.

The second was Konstantin Dimitrov, a Bulgarian drug lord. In 2003 Dimitrov was assassinated while eating at a restaurant in Amsterdam, Holland when he was 31 years old.

The last owner of the deadly phone number is Konstantin Dishliev, a property manager who is also involved in drug trafficking activities. Dishliev was shot dead in 2005 while standing near an Indian restaurant in the capital Sofia, Bulgaria.

After the third owner of this scary phone number died, no one was brave enough to reuse it.

3. Number 11 is haunting in America

There is so much detail in the 9/11 terrorist attacks in the US that many people are obsessed.

The World Trade Center's twin towers stand close to each other like a giant number 11. On September 11, terrorists let the plane crash into this twin tower.

September 11 is the 254th day of the year and the sum of the numbers 2, 5 and 4 is 11.

The first plane crashed into the twin towers was flight number 11, the number of crew was 11 and the number of passengers was 92 people ($9 + 2 = 11$).

Even the words related to this event like NEW YORK CITY, AFGHANISTAN, RAMSIN YUSEB, GEORGE W. BUSH all have 11 letters.

4. Scary number 17 with Italians

Number 17 is an unfortunate number for the Italians. Because they think that, when written in Roman numerals as XVII, it can create VIXI which means "I lived" - "I have lived" or "I am dead" in Latin.

Therefore, number 17 does not appear on aircraft and hotels in Italy.

5. The 250 number of Chinese people

250

Chinese people consider 250 to show offense. In Chinese, 250 is pronounced "Èr b?i w?", this word also means "stupid", "useless" or "futile".

6. The unlucky number 26 of the Indians

In India, number 26 is an unfortunate number, even deadly. Because a lot of devastating disasters have ever happened that are related to the number 26.

1. On January 26, 2001, earthquakes devastated Gujarat, causing the deaths of 20,000 people.
2. On December 26, 2004, a terrible tsunami killed nearly 230,000 people.
3. On May 26, 2007, a bomb exploded many people died and injured in the northeast of India.
4. On July 26, 2008, many people died and were injured by a bomb exploded in Ahmedabad.
5. On November 26, 2008, a series of bloody terrorist attacks occurred in India.

In addition, $2 + 6 = 8$, number 8 represents destruction, difficulty, and arithmetic failure.

7. Numbers 9 and 4 are unlucky in Japan

Numbers 9 and 4 are considered unfortunate numbers in Japan. Because the pronunciation of 9 is similar to the word "endure", and the pronunciation of 4 is similar to the word "death" in Japanese.

In addition, the number 4 is considered to be the number of deaths because it corresponds to the final order in the circle of life "Born - Old - Sick - Death".

Most hotels, high-rise buildings, apartments in the country of cherry blossoms do not have room numbers of 9.4 or 49.

8. Scary number 7

In 2014, a series of aircraft accidents involving No. 7 made many people fearless.

On July 24, the AH5017 crashed with 116 people in Niger or Mali while flying from Ouagadougou (Burkina Faso) to Algiers (Algerie).

On July 23, Taiwan's ATR72 aircraft bearing the number GE222 fell from a height of about 28m down a building, killing 48 people while making an emergency landing in the area affected by the hurricane Matmo.

Malaysia Airlines flight MH17 crashed in eastern Ukraine causing 298 people to die in the journey from Amsterdam (Netherlands) to Kuala Lumpur. July 17, 1997 MH17 flew first and died on July 17, 2014, after exactly 17 years.

Malaysia Airlines flight MH370 carrying 239 mysterious missing people so far has no solution.

9. 666 Satan's numbers

For Westerners, the number 666 is scary, a symbol of temptation, causing people to mislead and make irreparable mistakes. In the last volume of the New Testament, also known as the book of Revelation, the number 666 is said to be an imprint of Satan's demon, the serpent seduced Adam and Eva to eat the forbidden fruit.

You finished reading the article "These scary numbers are haunting all over the world" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
