In the updated version, Pokemon Go has added Buddy Pokemon feature, bringing Pokemon to walk with the coaches. So what is this feature and do they have benefits for Pokemon Go gamers?

The newly released version of Pokemon Go has officially aired, with the addition of Buddy Pokemon. This calculator understands that na is that you will take Pokemon join the journey to catch Pokemon, visit Pokestop, or simply walk around the park only. However, is Buddy Pokemon simply adding a companion to the coach, or are there any other benefits to use?

1. What is Buddy Pokemon?

Buddy Pokemon or Buddy System is a completely new feature that manufacturers bring to the game players. Players will be allowed to choose a Pokekon from the list to become their pet. And that Pokemon will be with the companion in the game.

2. What does Buddy Pokemon bring to players?

In addition, we will add more companions for every trip, it is more valuable, that you will receive more Candy when using Buddy Pokemon feature. This will be essential for the evolution of Pokemon types.

However, the reward will depend on the type of Pokemon Buddy and the number of kilometers traveled. Players will have to actively walk with their Pokemon to earn more Candy. For example, Magikarp requires 4000 Candy, or Clefairy will only need 1 kilometer walk to get 1 more Candy. However, there will be types of Pokemon walking distance that require a lot more than 3 km or 5 km to get Candy for players.

3. Pokemon Buddy list by distance:

Receiving Candy through the Buddy Pokemon feature will be divided into 3 levels: 1 km distance, 3 km walk and 5 km walk. Gamers can follow the 3 statistics listed below, according to different distances to know which Pokemon to join the journey in the game:
