

This fanpage is full of 3D effects, virtual magic 4D, comfortable 360 ??degree rotation, watching the whole day is not boring

This fanpage is full of unique 3D and 4D images that can be dragged and dropped freely in 360 degrees, even upside down.

The feature of posting 3D photos on Facebook has appeared, many people find it interesting. But the usual 3D images on Facebook can only "shake" a little more than the original position, which is difficult to satisfy some fastidious netizens. If you are one of them, please visit this fanpage called "4d3d3d3 Engaged", surely you will be satisfied with the unique 3D and 4D photos that can be dragged and dropped freely in 360 degrees, even It is okay to reverse the image backwards.

The "4d3d3d3 Engaged" fanpage was created with the aim of posting a unique 3D image to help people entertain and escape the fatigue of life. Although recently appeared, this fanpage has attracted more than 500,000 likes and followers.

The way to make these unique photos is not disclosed but it is certain that people have created overlapping 3D photo layers, compatible with Facebook's 3D photo recognition mechanism with an advanced graphics tool. somehow. This helps the viewer to rotate the image in all directions, even turning it backwards.

If you are interested, you can visit this fanpage to enjoy more magical 3D photos.

4d3d3d3 Engaged

See more:

1. How to post 3D photos on Facebook
2. Instructions on how to create 3D effects and objects in Photoshop
3. With just two vertical lines, this GIF image has turned into an impressive 3-dimensional image like this

You finished reading the article "This fanpage is full of 3D effects, virtual magic 4D, comfortable 360 ?? degree rotation, watching the whole day is not boring" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.