

This is a collection of wallpapers on iPhones and Macs that Apple has released so far

Recently, Apple has announced the official collection of wallpapers for iPhone and Mac ever.

Since the launch of the first iPhone generation 12 years ago, Apple has shared many beautiful and unique wallpapers dedicated to its products, from iPhone, iPad to iPod. These photos soon became popular globally, many people wanted to own them even without using iPhones. This happens not only because those photos are installed by default on one of the world's most popular phones, but also because Apple has been extremely elaborate on the content and quality of the photos.

Even for many, the iPhone wallpapers contain many of the precious memories they have experienced in the past.

Recently, Apple has announced the official collection of wallpapers of iPhone and Mac ever released by the company to consumers.
