

This is the Galaxy Z Fold3 and Z Flip3 limited edition Thom Browne

Currently Samsung has not announced the price for this special collection, but it certainly won't be cheap.

At the Unpacked event just held by Samsung, in addition to the new product range such as Galaxy Z Fold3, Z Flip3 as well as Galaxy Watch4 and Buds2, Samsung also launched a special collection of this product range, continuing to cooperate with Samsung, with American designer Thom Browne. This is the third year that Samsung and the famous designer Thom Browne have collaborated to launch a limited edition of the foldable smartphone line.

This time Thom Browne Edition collection is not limited to only one Fold or Flip version, instead, Samsung offers users both special versions with a completely new design. Although it retains the main colors of designer Thom Browne (blue, red and white), in this year's version, the white ratio has taken up almost the entire machine design, bringing a product line most luxurious and sophisticated products.

Like previous Thom Browne versions, this year's collection continues to include the entire Samsung ecosystem: Galaxy Z Fold3/Z Flip3 special edition, Galaxy Watch4, Galaxy Buds2 and an S Pen also included. customized in the style of Thom Browne. Because of the distribution according to the collection, the selling price of the Thom Browne version is also much more expensive than buying each product individually.

Currently, Samsung has not announced the official price of the Thom Browne collection this time, but it certainly won't be cheap. Last year, the Galaxy Z Fold2 Thom Browne collection sold for up to $ 3299, much more expensive than the $ 1999 retail price of the Galaxy Z Fold2. This year, the Galaxy Z Fold3 is priced at $200 cheaper, or only $1,799, and the Z Flip3 is also priced at just $999. Chances are the Thom Browne version will also have a slightly cheaper price.

Users can pre-order the Thom Browne collection from today on Samsung's official website, of course the number of products sold will also be limited.
