

This is the world's most rare passport, only 3 people in the world own it

Worldwide, only 3 people have the right to own a passport issued by the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, making it the most rare passport in the world.

Worldwide, only 3 people have the right to own a passport issued by the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, making it the most rare passport in the world.

1. Why do passports in the world only have 4 colors?
2. Discover Korea's most mysterious passport book

The Malta or Knight Order line of full-fledged Knights of Malta, fully named St. John's Line of the Governor-General of Jerusalem, Rhodes and Malta, founded in the 11th century, is an organized Roman Catholic congregation. served as a military force to protect security and health care for pilgrims to the Holy Land.

They are the oldest European knights in the world, operating "public, fair and non-political", rated as chivalrous forces and martial arts. Currently, the Association has 13,500 knights, wives and clergy, 80,000 permanent volunteers and 25,000 employees.

The line of Malta Governor-General only issued this red passport to the members of the Supreme Council of the only 3 people, the Grand Master, the Vice Governor and the Grand Attorney. 500 other people of this congregation are only granted diplomatic passports.

This world's rarest passport is only valid for 4 years and is strictly controlled by the Association.

Although it does not own any land, this Order is a permanent observer at the United Nations. They maintain diplomatic relations with 106 countries and territories, including the EU. These countries all accept their valuable passports as a kind of legal identity.

The president of the religious congregation, one of the three who owns a rare passport, meets Pope Francis in 2016.

This rare passport includes the biometric features of individual owners such as mole marks, scars, . and all are in accordance with ICAO International Civil Aviation Organization standards.

But some countries like England, USA, New Zealand . do not accept the owner of this red passport to enter for reasons of travel.

According to the latest statistics in 2017, the country with the most powerful passport in the world today is Germany, when people can reach 176/218 countries without having to apply for a visa.

You finished reading the article "This is the world's most rare passport, only 3 people in the world own it" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.