Tips to increase your income in TheoTown, Effective ways to earn money and diamonds in TheoTown - simulation game, build a city and set up a battle

TheoTown is an exciting simulation, city-building and strategy-setting game in which gamers must create and improve their city in order for it to grow. Similar to other games of the same genre, to build new buildings, players need to spend a lot of money in the game. In today's article, let's learn effective ways to earn money and diamonds in TheoTown.

How to make money in TheoTown

To start making money in the game TheoTown, everyone will need to work very hard, because the level of income will directly depend on the population in the city and their satisfaction with life. Ways to earn income in TheoTown include:

1. Collect taxes from people in the city.
2. Mining.
3. Collect resources that will be converted into money.

The reality is that there are not too many ways to make money, but if used correctly, the profit the player receives will be huge. Beginner players can refer to the following tips to get more income without requiring too much effort.

First, try to create a giant map of your city with many countries. Players can destroy Sea Rock and earn huge starting capital.

Build a DSA, allocate a large territory, unlock and fill the area inside the city with lots of plants. Then people can plant a bunch of trees and make a lot of profit. If possible, use reforested to simplify and speed up this process.

One of the best sources of income is taxes. At the beginning of the game, people need to build some industrial buildings and invest resources to make the inhabitants comfortable in the city.

Building parks, cheapest schools, hospitals, power plants and heating systems all help increase residents' satisfaction. The more comfortable the living conditions, the higher the tax, but don't worry, the residents will not hesitate to pay it immediately, as long as they are satisfied with life in the city the player built.

Then, slowly expand the city territory and invest excess income in industrial infrastructure.

How to collect diamonds in TheoTown

Diamonds in TheoTown are almost impossible to get for free, but there are still some features in the game that allow players to earn more diamonds.

1. Logging in every day is the easiest way to earn a small amount of diamonds in a short time. Players can get from 10 to 45 diamonds per day.
2. Watching ads is boring, but it works in every game. Alternatively, people can download some auto-click apps, configure them correctly, and have it work automatically while doing other work.

1. Sell ??plugins in TheoTown's store. If it's possible to make cool plugins, sell it in the Theotown store for a great price, but don't make your plugin overpriced.
2. People can book bus stops, prior to arrival, even though the point is available in advance. That way, when starting to book tickets, gamers don't need to define the route. Then keep adding routes and get diamonds to make the buses bigger and bigger.
