

Tips to play MIR4 beginners need to know

Tips for playing MIR4 beginners need to know, MIR4 tips that gamers need to know, including how to choose and upgrade characters, complete missions, power effects, ...

MIR4 is a fantasy MMORPG by Wemade, with intense battle scenes and stunning realistic 3D graphics. MIR4 has many interesting features to offer players, for example choose your own story and can develop them without any limitation. If you are a beginner who wants to understand the basic mechanics of the game, here are important tips and tricks to remember when playing MIR4.

Overview of gameplay

All player activities in MIR4 go to the ultimate goal of character development. To explore the mysterious life of the Eastern world in the game, people can choose to become any character. MIR4 has a wide selection of gameplay, from a peaceful life, focusing on hunting and gathering, to conducting expeditions, wars against other warriors and clans to conquer the entire world. .

Tips to play MIR4 beginners need to know

Learn character classes

Before officially entering MIR4, the game offers 4 character options. Even if you are new to the game, everyone should know what abilities each character has. Picking any character without knowing anything about it will reduce enjoyment of the game. Character classes include Warrior, Sorcerer, Taoist, and Lancer.

Warrior: This character was born to fight. With higher attack damage and decent defense, this will definitely be the first choice of players who like to attack.

Sorcerer: If skillfully used this character, it will be extremely dangerous. Although it will be a bit difficult for players to use because of its relatively low defense, it is worth it in exchange for the higher damage AoE and single target spells.

Taoist: This character has extraordinary strength in melee attacks but low defense.

Lancer: Lancer has a versatile set of moves and wields a spear for wide range attacks, often crushing opponents with fast-paced action.

Character selection and upgrade

Character selection is very important as the game offers the above 4 roles. Each of them has different stats, abilities and skills.

Everyone has to choose based on how they are going to play the game. After choosing the character, customize it to your liking and give it a name. Now, let's get ready to enter the main game because the preparations are complete.

Complete daily quests and goals

The game offers 30 simple tasks to complete daily. These are small tasks and very easy to complete. Players will receive EXP points and other useful resources as rewards, but it will take some time to complete all 30 missions. Always try to complete these tasks to get the necessary resources.

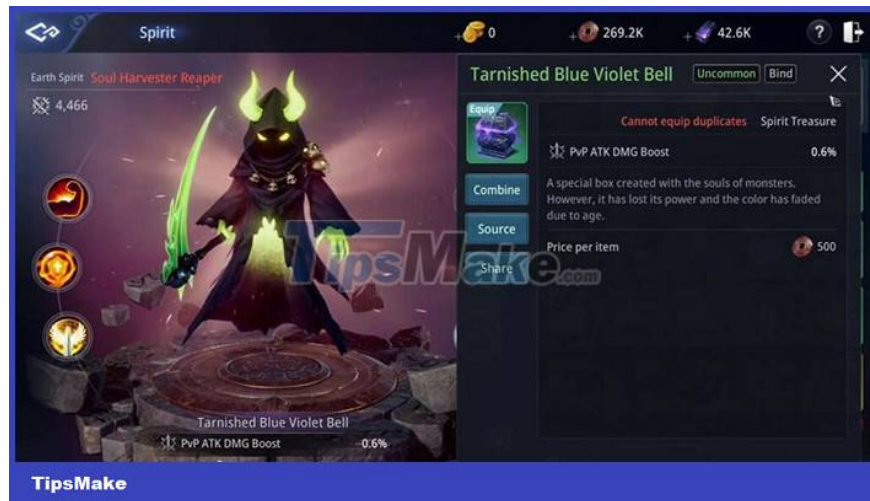

With growing deeper while playing, MIR4 also becomes more difficult. So, do the main quests to receive rewards that are items that help increase the character's strength.

Tips for the Vigor . effect

Players can use auto-collect, which is a passive way to grow faster. Don't forget to activate the items in the Vigor section located just below the HP icon, after defeating a monster. By activating it, gamers will gain more experience and help become stronger than players who do not use it.

Extra tips to grow faster

Players can craft higher level equipment by collecting and combining lower level equipment or items.

Summoning a pet spirit grants additional combat power. At the start, use pets that provide more experience and damage.

Always accept field missions before doing the main quest. It will help to complete both field missions and main quests together.

You finished reading the article "Tips to play MIR4 beginners need to know" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.