

To be good at English, don't forget to visit these 13 YouTube channels every day

In addition to movies, YouTube is also a resource repository that any English learner cannot ignore. If you only think of funny videos, advertisements, documentaries or music videos of all genres, you have ignored the great learning materials on this planet's largest video sharing social network. there.

In addition to movies , YouTube is also a resource repository that any English learner should not ignore. If you only think of funny videos, advertisements, documentaries or music videos of all genres, you have ignored the great learning materials on this planet's largest video sharing social network. there.

In this article, we do not mention English music videos (things that cannot be counted), we would like to introduce to you the "quality" YouTube Channel that can be confirmed, only needing to practice listening / watching every day is enough to help you become an English "master" in a very short time. However, before you start, let's try to learn how to learn English on YouTube.

Why should you learn English on YouTube?

Here are some very interesting videos that Fluentu has listed. Certainly, apart from them, everyone will have their own reasons when choosing YouTube to study.

1. YouTube has millions of English learning videos of all kinds, covering a variety of topics and is available for all ages: lyrics of English music videos (lyrics), vietsub, conversation, phonics, pronunciation, and communication Basic receptions, common English, job interview videos, fairy tales, idiomatic explanations, news, current events, discoveries, IELTS, TOEFL, GMAT revisions . In it, videos Teaching phonics with leading experts comes with very detailed instructions about the change of mouth, lips, larynx . when speaking can be considered a very valuable resource.

2. Feel free to choose videos of different durations and watch them online without downloading.
3. When watching videos, you can freely rewind, pause, select playback speed, quality, sub, repeat (loop) . just like when downloading movies / videos to your computer and use professional video players on your computer.
4. A lot of YouTube videos on the topic of everyday life, realistic with a variety of situations . not rigid and acting like a movie. Therefore, the practice of communicating English becomes more authentic.
5. Comfortably exchange language, chat English with millions of people around the world through comment section. If you know how to exploit, this is also a way to cultivate slang, idiom and increase "process" very effectively.

13 super cool YouTube channels to learn English every day

Here are useful YouTube channels for you to subscribe ( Subscribe ) and visit every day to learn. They are randomly arranged, not in any order of priority.

1. British Council Learn English : This is the British Council 's official YouTube channel - the British Council (the UK's international organization for cultural and educational cooperation) offers a series of professionally designed videos about content, sound and images. Here, you can watch videos that cover many topics of everyday life and vividly illustrated grammar lessons.
2. Anglo-Link : YouTube channel provides videos aimed at specific topics such as listening, vocabulary, grammar . Currently, this channel has more than 670 thousand Subscriber.
3. JenniferESL : Learn English every day with Jennifer , you'll feel like there's always a very dedicated tutor supporting you. With the aim of helping beginners learn English, Jennifer's videos are built very friendly, easy to understand and simple. This is also the destination of many people who want to practice phonics.

4. Rachel's English : Rachel is the ideal choice if you want to learn American English . This channel features very detailed phonetic videos, instructions on how to pronounce difficult words, easy to confuse words with differentiating and many other interesting content.

5. EnglishLessons4U : This YouTube channel now has over 1 million signups with simple, practical and funny lessons.

6. Let's Talk : This is a prominent YouTube channel with Indian teachers, currently has over 1 million Subscriber, focusing on practicing intonation, correct grammar usage, idiom, phrase and vocabulary.

7. KidsTV123 : This is a YouTube channel for children learning English, with a series of videos with colorful graphics, cheerful melodies, standard pronunciation and lessons based on Phonics methods .

8. Speak English with Misterduncan : Misterduncan is a well-loved English expert who stands out with funny and funny videos but still ensures to provide you with the best English content. With Misterduncan, you will find that learning is no longer the same pressure as before.

9. BBC Learn English : BBC official YouTube channel with videos on daily life topics, cartoons, interviews or news.

10. VOA Learning English : This is a YouTube channel that is no stranger to English learners, providing newsletters with subtitles, a slower reading speed than usual so you will have time to listen to the pronunciation. Each word clearly, watching Speaker's mouth and practicing intonation very effectively.

11. EF podEnglish : This channel includes 5-minute videos suitable for Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced English learners.

12. TED Talks : TED Talks share great ideas from leading speakers in the world with authentic and reliable information. The videos on this channel are about 18 minutes long, covering many topics such as technology, life, science, creativity, environment, culture, society ., ideal for all people wishing to practice listening English to test IELTS, TOEIC, TOEFL, GMAT .

13. Discovery : An ideal destination for those who like to listen to in-depth topics on science, history, nature, people, life, geography, and technology.

If you still know more useful YouTube channels to learn English, please share it below the comment section.

You finished reading the article "To be good at English, don't forget to visit these 13 YouTube channels every day" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.