

Top 10 Chrome plugins for businesses

As we all know, since Google Chrome Web Store was officially announced, users have felt much more convenient when using Chrome's services and functions, and besides the browser also works. fast, much more efficient with the most recent version 17 ...

TipsMake.com - As we all know, since Google Chrome Web Store was officially announced, users have felt much more convenient when using Chrome 's services, functions , and besides The browser also works fast, much more efficiently with the most recent version 17. But in an environment with so many supporting applications and plug-ins like that, it is difficult to know which utility is best suited to each situation. In the following article, we will introduce to you 10 plugins for Chrome that are considered the best in the small and medium business model.

1.Gmail Offline:

Gmail Offline beta was developed, built and integrated into the browser to help users access the mailbox, read and reply to emails when offline. After the first launch, Gmail Offline automatically syncs data messages and other operations when Chrome is active and the system has an Internet connection. Besides, you can also refer to and use the Google Mail Checker widget with the main effect of informing the user when there is a message, the new email is displayed through the toolbar.

2.Evernote:

This app is no stranger to any of us, Evernote allows users to store and organize any event, task, appointment, idea . as a screen message. Desktop On the other hand, Evernote is also supplemented with many other support features, making it easier for us to share data on many different computers, social networks . Besides, the private version for Mobile will become an indispensable tool for users of iOS or Android phones today.

3.Mint:

In the field of financial monitoring and management, Mint.com can be considered as the first choice that allows users to track, compare budgets and all your money quickly and simply. All services, accounts, trading sessions, debts, loans, account cancellations . are automatically sorted and classified, so users fully know their money is being use for any purpose.

4.PollDaddy:

PollDaddy is currently one of the most popular online tools to create survey and evaluation forms as well as multiple choice questions. For businesses, one of the most important factors to attract and retain customers is how to meet the needs, care about the quality of after-sales service . PollDaddy is the public. tools are almost indispensable for them.

5.TweetDeck:

Technically, TweetDeck helps users, marketers, online sales . keep track of the sessions they care about in real time. It offers more flexibility in many situations, easier access to the growing number of customers every day when they participate in social networking models. Anyone can participate in the conversation, the session by tweeting, sharing photos, information through stories, online shops . Supporting the working mode from many other accounts each other, this is a very important advantage of TweetDeck.

6. Weebly:

If you want to create a website, blog or personal store, please refer to and use Weebly, completely free, user-friendly interface, easy to use, support many advanced technology platforms. The current. Besides, Weebly also integrates the ability to register domain, cloud-based hosting, so you can be assured of your website.

7. Prezi:

When you want to attract the attention of customers and partners, nothing is better than a document in the form of a slide show. PowerPoint 'dominance' is gradually losing, and instead, many applications and utilities support many new features. In particular, Prezi is quite outstanding with a web-based technical platform, allowing users to add media details, text data, images . and many other options.

8.Screen Capture:

Screen capture on a computer has become very simple with a lot of support tools, all we have to do is press the Print Screen button on the keyboard, save to a photo editing application Anything like MS Paint, Adobe Photoshop . edit and store images later. But with Screen Capture, we can also get separate content on each web page, edit, add or remove details before saving them as PNG files.

9.Cacoo:

This is an online graphic drawing tool that allows users to create different types of diagrams such as website sitemaps, original frames of design drawings, Unified Modeling Language models, network systems . Computer support Real-time collaboration, so many drawings can be created or edited at the same time.

10.Ge.tt:

Ge.tt is an online photo sharing service, with a real-time operating mechanism, detailed statistics statistics to help users easily track the exact situation of the shared photos. , how many views, how many downloads . Besides, users can also send shared files to email directly from the website without having to worry about capacity (account registration required. ), and the recipient will have many options to receive and process those image files.

You finished reading the article "Top 10 Chrome plugins for businesses" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

