

Top 10 free apps worthwhile for Windows 8.1

Although it has been integrated into the People function on Windows 8.1, nothing is possible and convenient with the application created by Facebook itself. The interface is quite similar to the website and the well-designed snap side bar gives users a comfortable and convenient experience.

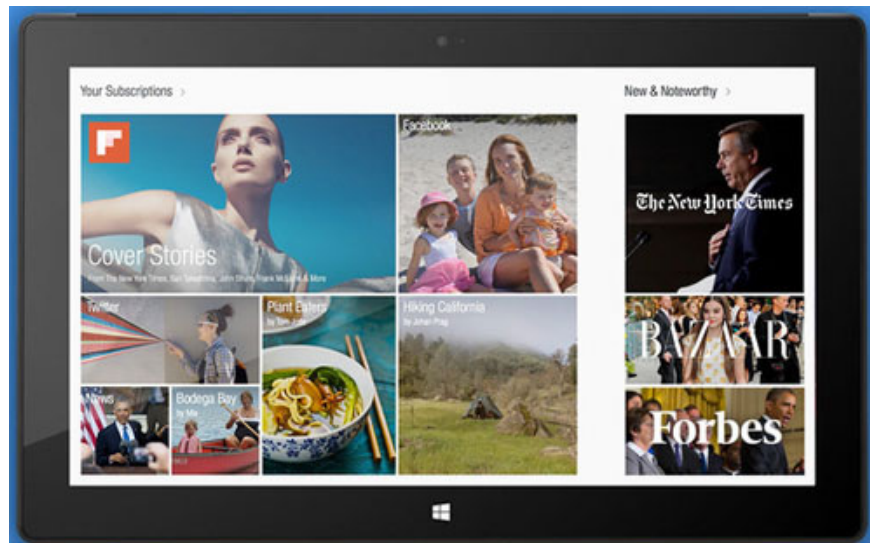

Free applications need to download immediately if you own Windows 8.1 version.

1. Facebook

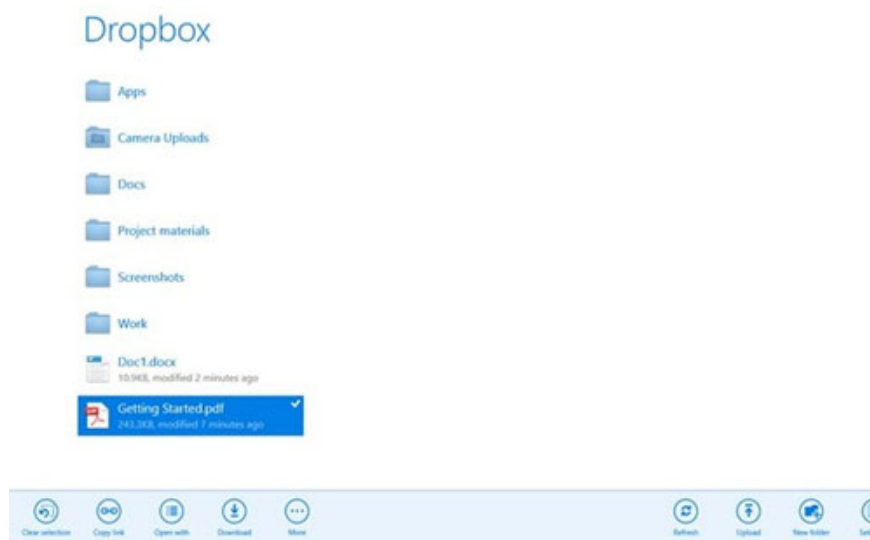

Although it has been integrated into the People function on Windows 8.1, nothing is possible and convenient with the application created by Facebook itself. The interface is quite similar to the website and the well-designed snap side bar gives users a comfortable and convenient experience. The Live Title function also works very well to help users keep up with friends' updates and messages continuously

2. Flipboard

Flipboard is one of the most popular news reader applications today. With the page flip interface as a magazine, the app feels pretty real when surfing. In addition, Flipboard's information source is also extremely diverse and rich, always updated constantly so you can not miss any scooping news.

3. Dropbox

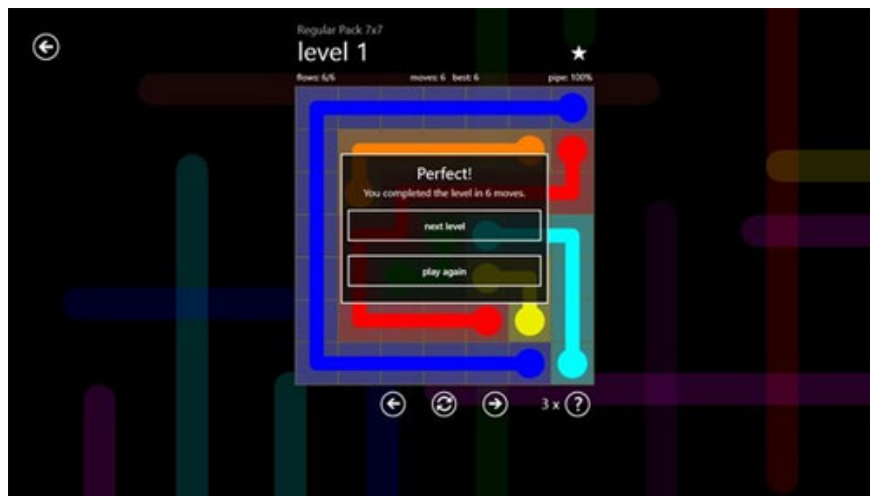

Dropbox data storage service seems to be too familiar to computer users. Now you can access your Dropbox account easier than ever with this application. With Folder view design is quite simple, users quickly manage their data warehouse.

4. Despicable Me: Minion Rush

If you are a fan of the movie " The Stolen Moon " and the cute Minion, this will definitely be your must-have game. If not, it's fine. Only once to try, you will quickly get caught up in the game with fast and extremely exciting rhythm of this game. Collect bananas, complete quests, upgrade " toys ", unlock new Minions and challenge your friends to Facebook. All will make you unable to put this endless-runner game down for hours.

5. Flow Free

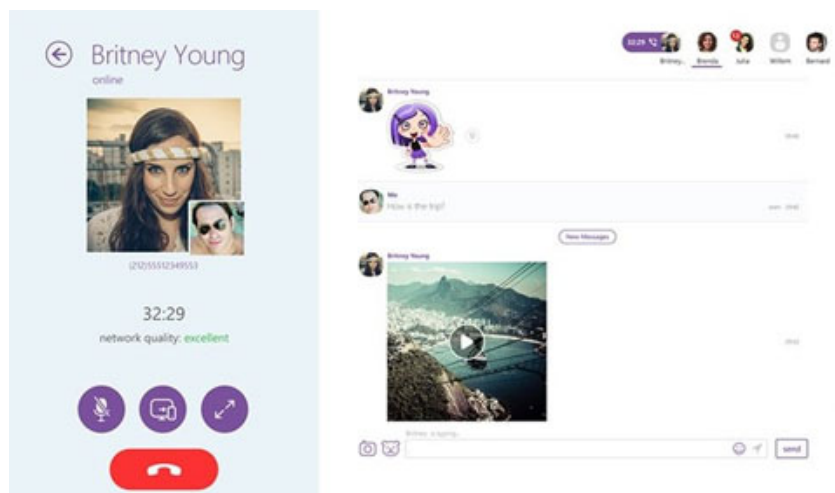

This is also one of the games that caused fever in the past year. With extremely simple gameplay, players simply connect the dots of the same color without overlapping each other. The game offers a huge amount of gameplay that makes it easy for players to finish the game quickly.

6. Skype

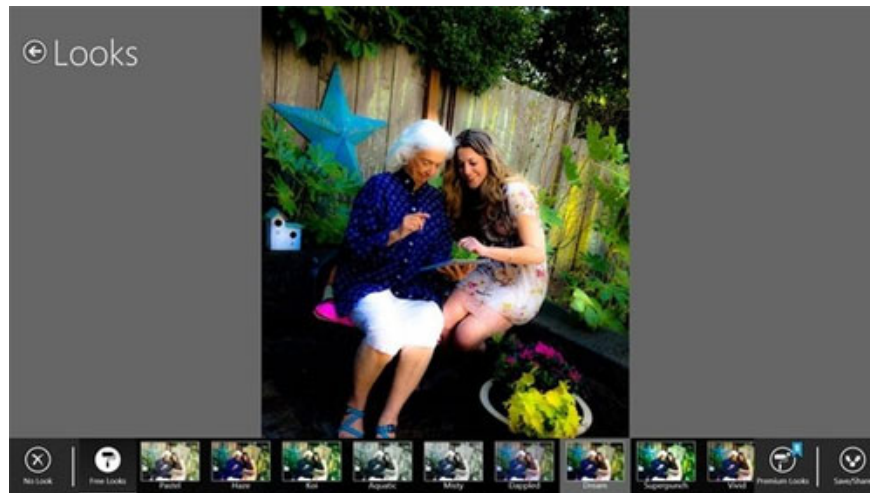

Skype is one of the most popular communication applications today with the quality of Video call is extremely quality as well as the number of users is extremely large. The Windows 8.1 version is also extremely well designed for both tablet and PC users.

7. Viber

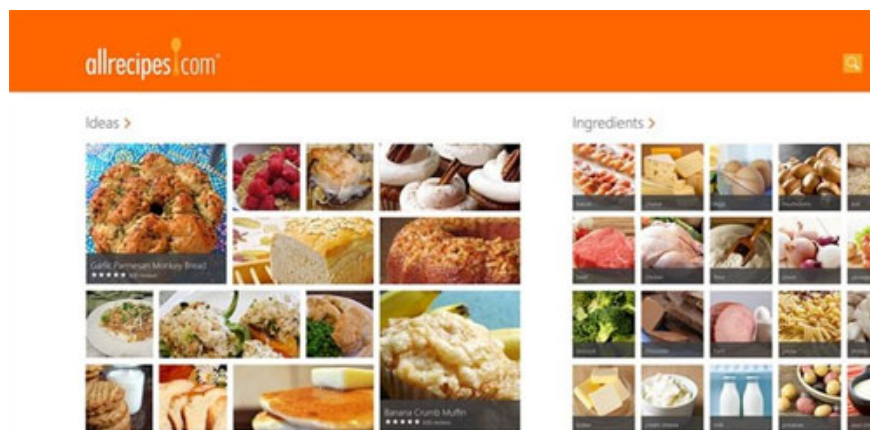

By using both the user's phone number to find friends, Viber is also a big competitor to Skype. The application also allows users to share photos and locations as well as make calls via 3G or Wifi waves.

8. Adobe Photoshop Express

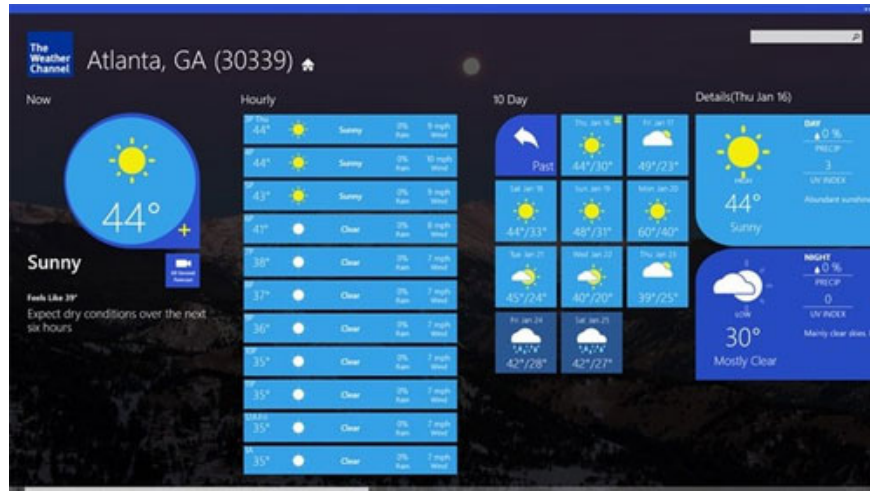

Of course, it is possible to run Photoshop CC software if you are using Windows 8.1 on a PC. But what if you were using a tablet or just wanted to tweak the images a bit about brightness, contrast, . what? Photoshop Express can solve these problems at a glance with an easy-to-view slideshow interface with 15 available filters and auto-calibration. After having satisfied with your photo, users can save it at Revel or share on Facebook.

9. Allrecipes

This is a worthwhile application even if you do not intend to go to Master Chef or King Chef Vietnam, then improve the chain of "shrimp" period of your shrimp or improve the skill of cooking to reward yourself The body is not a bad idea, is it? With an extremely clear interface with detailed step-by-step instructions, delicious food will become closer to you than ever.

10. The Weather Channel

Like iOS, Windows 8.1 also has available Weather application. But getting information directly from the source is always better. The Weather Channel allows you to preview the weather every hour for the next 10 days. Information such as wind speed, sunrise, sunset, . are displayed in great detail.

You finished reading the article "Top 10 free apps worthwhile for Windows 8.1" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.