

Top 10 good ganking teams in the arena of Truth 2 season

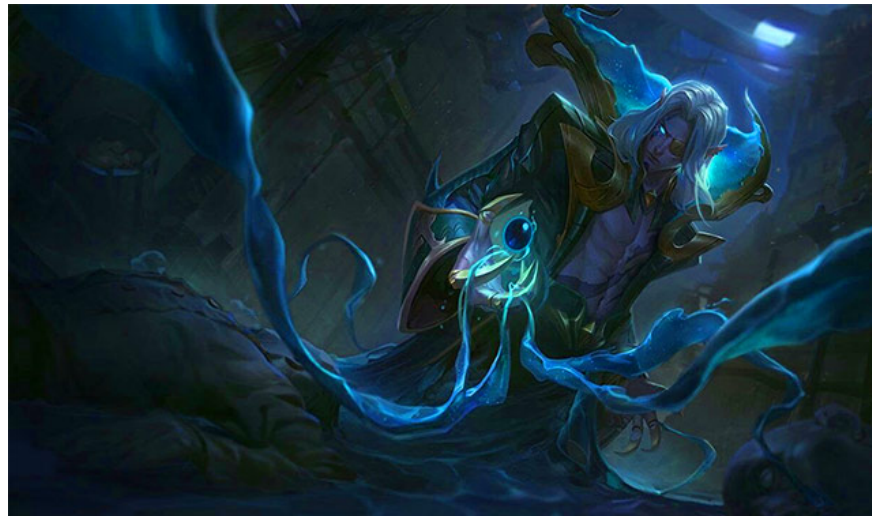

This is a list of the main dame champions in the Arena of Truth season 2, including gold prices, matching squad and equipment for each champion.

Right from the beginning of the Arena of Truth season 2, there have been many strong squads for each version. The roster that has risen to the meta has ragged squads, with the generals in this version struggling to gain a foothold in the squad.

Although it still depends a lot on factors such as the overall strength of the team, how to build the DTCL map . However, there are only a few generals above all, and these are the The main carry can carry a strong team in this season's DTCL. If you have identified a squad with the following names, please raise them carefully.

Champions carry good teams in DTCL season 2

Vladimir

Vladimir has the advantage of only 1 gold and can gain 3 stars early on if using Hyper Roll. You can also be on the field from the beginning to the end of the game if you match the right gear. Moreover, the team with Vladimir can completely manage more than other teams and the way to raise Vladimir is also very diverse.

You can give him the top rank with Warmog's Armor with 1 or 2 other items to suck enemies' blood as a Tanker. On the other hand, you can also leave Vladimir behind the Guardians or Battle Heroes. Vladimir's adaptability is one of the factors that makes him a major carry in the team.

Vayne

Along with Vladimir, Vayne is also a low-cost champion and can seamlessly transition from start to finish. As a Light / Archer general, she has many different coordination abilities and can maximize the potential of some items such as Rage Bow, Rage Blade and Red Charm. If Vayne is in your queue early, it's a good idea to pick her up.

Dr Mundo

Surprisingly, Dr Mundo is also on this list, Dr Mundo is not a general that most gamers think must necessarily equip him. But the potential to become a main carry in Dr Mundo's team is very high.

It depends a lot on his skills, Dr Mundo is capable of dealing cone damage because he is a Chien Chien and because he is a Poison. Poison buffs can slow down an enemy's attack because it uses more mana.

Therefore, to take advantage of this ability of Mundo, you need him to take the Demon Letter, Ice Gloves and Dr Mundo will become a nuisance in the front line and allow the heroes to deal damage over time in The team finishes the enemy team.

Veigar

Like DTCL Season 1, Veigar can be the main carry in a team if the player can raise him to 2 or 3 stars as soon as possible. Stack 2 Scepter and Shojin with the Wizard buff will help Veigar cast successively, and the enemy champion will die very quickly.

You can prioritize the Guardian guard against Veigar around him. Thus, Veigar can completely dominate an enemy team even if your enemy has many 3 star generals.

Brand

Brand is one of the main carry capable of destroying the best enemy champion in DTCL season 2. Pairing him with other wizards can almost wipe out an enemy team in a very short time.

With items that are right for himself, Brand can repeatedly fire a fireball at an enemy champion if he is equipped with the Scepter, Vigil, Luden and Gang Bao Thach as a mandatory equipment for him.

With the above items, Brand can use more skills. And because this skill can attack many enemies at the same time. You can use Morello as an alternative if you can't find the equipment above.

Kha'Zix

There was a special squad for Kha'Zix that put him on this list. The Angel's Staff is an absolute must-have item for Kha'Zix and it will send him across the map. The next equipment can be Infinity Sword, Hextech Gun Sword or a second Angel Staff and Kha'Zix will immediately become a threat to the enemy team.

Olaf

Olaf only becomes a dangerous main carry if he can use his skills quickly. This will turn Olaf into a real killing machine and his name will be placed at the top of the list of damage after every round.

To help Olaf get that achievement, you need to have something for him. The best equipment can be the Warmog Blood Armor and Blood Sword. These help Olaf heal continuously, even after transformation.

Master Yi

Master Yi is a champion that has a lot of late game users. Especially when the Darkness and the Swordsman have a living land, the part that makes Yi strong is the buff of synergies. The Dark, Mysterious and Guest Buffs may be missing at the end of the game and Yi is the perfect missing piece.

Items suitable for "Teacher Yi" will be Rageblade, Sword of Death and even Warmog's Armor.

Singed

Singed is a main carry different from the above generals. He had a job on the team and that was the only job he needed to do well: Survive .

The right equipment for Singed is Warmog Blood Armor, Armor Armor, Dragon Claw and Demon Mail. These equipment will help Singed continue to run around the arena to distract the enemy heroes, along with reducing the damage that teammates must take.

Like Dr Mundo, Singed makes himself an immediate threat to the game and makes it difficult for magic teams to fight back.

Zed

Out of all the current champions in the Arena of Truth, Zed has the potential to become the highest carry in the team because of the number of Zed clones if they have the right clothes and the right team.

Zed's equipment at the end of this game will be Angel's Armor, Atonement Chain, Statikk Electric Knife, Warmog's Armor and a number of other equipment that can help Zed clone his copy multiple times.

In addition, the 3 Lightning team will help Zed increase critical damage and quickly kill enemies. In general, if you are building a Summon, Lightning or Assassin team. Make room for Zed and the items he needs.

Above are the best team carries in DTCL season 2. And you, you often "pick" the champion to raise as the main carry in your team. Please share with TipsMake.com with a comment below.
