

Top 10 hottest artificial intelligence apps today

AI artificial intelligence apps with modern algorithms are gradually becoming an essential part of 4.0 technology life. Below is a list of the top 10 hottest AI artificial intelligence apps today.

AI artificial intelligence apps with modern algorithms are gradually becoming an essential part of 4.0 technology life. In this article, TipsMake shares a list of the top 10 hottest AI artificial intelligence apps today.

1. Google Gemini – AI Chat Bot App from Google

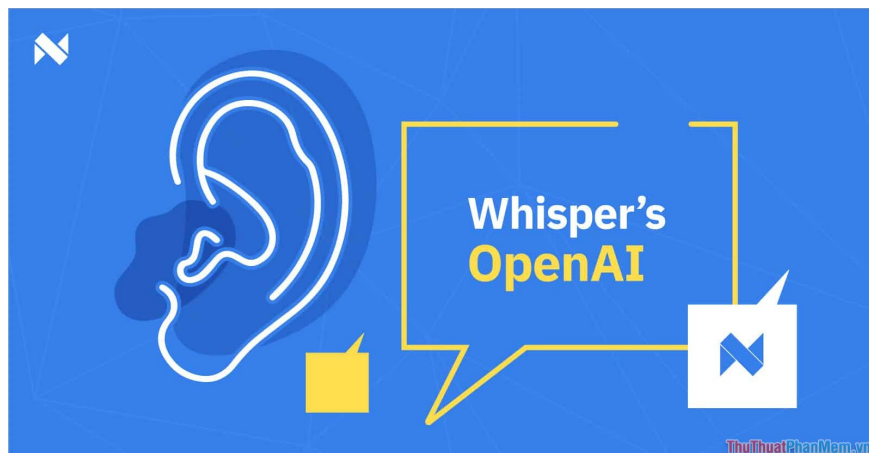

With the strength of a technology giant, Google cannot miss the AI game. Google Gemini was formerly known as Bard, but was later renamed Project Gemini to complete the release. Bot Chat AI artificial intelligence tool from Google can answer all questions, write essays, poems, answer questions, etc. Any user questions or requests are handled quickly by AI, ensuring accurate and effective information. Currently, Google Gemini is being released for free and users only need to log in with a Google account.

2. ChatGPT – The hottest AI Chat Bot application in the world

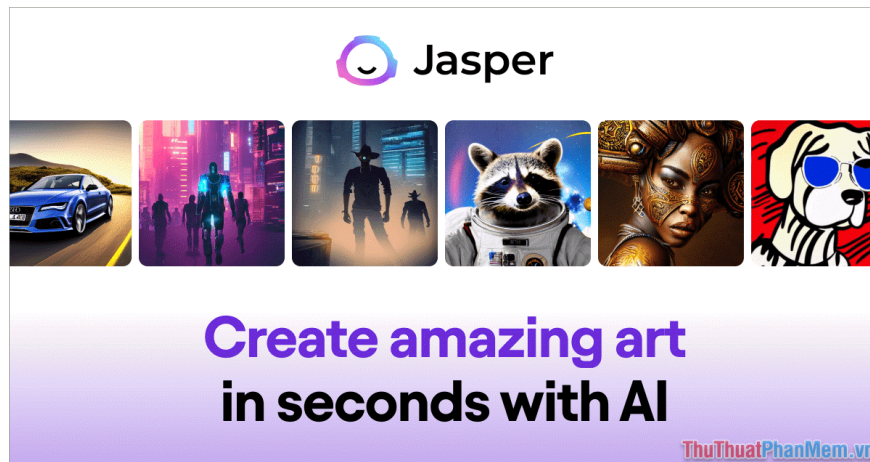

ChatGPT created a wave of artificial intelligence in 2023, within 2 months it reached 100 million users and became the fastest user growth application in Internet history. According to reported data, on average there are about 13 million GPT chat visitors per day in 1 month (Time of GPT Chat announcement globally). For easy comparison, it took TikTok 9 months to reach 100 million users, Instagram took 2.5 years, so ChatGPT has become the most powerful growing AI platform globally. ChatGPT AI chatbot uses artificial intelligence and machine learning, can write reports, essays, jokes, poetry, Q&A and many other features.

3. Whisper – Voice artificial intelligence software

Whisper has the same father as ChatGPT, which is OpenAI with a series of large and small projects related to artificial intelligence and machine learning. App Whisper uses a voice recognition model trained on a server with a huge and diverse database. Aiming for personalization, Whisper offers 5 machine learning models with a variety of capacities, information, and optimizations for each different job. App Whisper's uses are commonly known as: Voice recognition, language translation, recording, talking, consulting and chatting, reading books, Podcasts, and many other features.

4. Jasper Art – AI artificial intelligence painting app

AI painting applications are currently being sought by many people to create beautiful works according to their preferences. If in the past, if you wanted to draw a digital painting, you had to learn drawing software, drawing tools, along with hand-painting, painting thinking. But since Jasper Art was born, you only need to enter the content for the picture, picture characteristics and ideas into the system to get a picture from AI with the right content as desired.

5. Midjourney – AI painting application

Midjourney is no stranger to artists, this is also the AI painting tool with the largest user community in the world today. The highlight of Midjourney is the image quality and the ability to develop content from commands. The paintings on Midjourney often closely follow the topic given by the user, in addition to having visual effects, colors, and visual styles (Digital, Art, Anime, Real.). If you really want a beautiful AI painting app, use Midjourney.

6. Rytr – App AI creates text content

AI Rytr application is known to office workers, marketers and digital content developers. Rytr is widely used to create high-quality, accurate, and diverse text content. Rytr artificial intelligence is highly applicable, especially for those who have to write essays, reports, marketing, blogs, summaries, news, announcements as well as many other applications. In particular, Rytr has the ability to write very good Emails. Please experience Rytr to know how to write professional Emails.

7. Prime Voice AI – Generate audio from text

AI app converts text into realistic speech Prime Voice AI is being used by many people to dub videos, translate movies and many other purposes. The specialness of Prime Voice AI lies in allowing users to customize ethnicity, gender, age, reading speed and many other features. In contrast to previous ways of reading text, Prime Voice AI reads text with a rhythm and rhythm that is no different from a real person.

8. Codex – Popular AI Code Writing App

Currently, AI is also capable of writing code quickly and accurately based on smart machine learning algorithms. Codex has the ability to read, understand commands and arrange commands to create code segments according to the user's needs. AI Codex application is currently being sought by many people to write Code, optimize Code as well as learn Code quickly and conveniently. Codex is developed based on the GPT-3 platform, a natural language model from OpenAI and trained on millions of different pieces of code.

9. Google MusicLM – Create music with AI

Google MusicLM helps you create melodies, songs, and pieces of music based on the lyrics you input. If you have good lyrics but don't have the ability to compose or make music, let Google MusicLM help you create melodies that match the lyrics. Currently, Google MusicLM is loved by many children, considered the smartest AI music creation support tool today.

10. DALL-E – AI artificial intelligence painting app

When it comes to AI tools capable of painting, people will immediately think of DALL-E with quality painting works. AI painting with DALL-E is gradually becoming a new trend and loved by many people. The highlight of AI is that it can draw quickly, it only takes 3-10 minutes to create a beautiful picture immediately. At the same time, paintings from DALL-E also have high image resolution, suitable for many different needs and work purposes.

In this article, TipsMake has shared the Top 10 hottest artificial intelligence apps today. Have a nice day!

You finished reading the article "Top 10 hottest artificial intelligence apps today" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.