

Top 10 most powerful smartphones in February 2021

AnTuTu recently announced a list of 10 Android smartphone models with the strongest performance scores as of the end of February 2021 and vivo has occupied the top 2 positions.

Although there are some changes, the AnTuTu score rankings in February 2021 still have the same throne, still vivo iQOO 7, a gaming smartphone with a score of 726,939, a device with a terrible configuration thanks to Snapdragon 888, 128GB RAM and 256GB internal memory. But it is worth mentioning that in 2nd place, Xiaomi Mi 11 lost 2nd place to Vivo X60 Pro + when it scored 726,925 points.

Even the brother Redmi K40 Pro also occupied the 3rd place of the Mi 11, pushing the seniors down to 4th place with 718,434 and 712,366 points, respectively. The remaining position in the top 5 belongs to the Huawei Mate 40 Pro with the Kirin 9000 chip, 8GB of RAM and 256GB ROM. The number of points that this phone scored is 683,919.

The rankings also appeared with a new name that is Galaxy S21 Ultra 5G using Snapdragon 888 with 679,152 points. 7th place belongs to the brand new Redmi K40 with a hot Snapdragon 870 chip with a score of 668,471.

The remaining three spots in the top 10 are occupied by last year's Snapdragon 865 SoC-based smartphones - OPPO Reno5 Pro + (667,456 points), Redmi K30S Extreme Edition (666,043 points) and iQOO 5 (661,609 points).
