

Top 30 sites will pay for the things you did

Let's TipsMake.com find out the Top 30 sites that will pay for the things you did in this article!

You probably have no interest in spending 40 hours a week to get rich online, right? However, you can still make money online in today's digital age. You do not need to work full-time online to take advantage of all possible income sources. In fact, this is a comprehensive list of sites that will actually pay you for what you have been doing, such as shopping or surfing the web. If you are doing this then why don't you get paid to do that?

Let's TipsMake.com find out the Top 30 sites that will pay for the things you did in this article!

1. Swagbucks.com

From watching videos, doing online surveys to playing games, Swagbucks offers a variety of different ways to entertain and "pour money into your pocket". In short, you can earn $ 25 - $ 100 a month on Swagbuck, just do what you have been doing online.

Swagbucks tops this list because I personally - the author of the article, made more money from it than other sites, and it seems that this site has the most options. Swagbucks also offers a shopping form of shopping in the form of SB points (<http://www.swagbucks.com/shop>) that you can get back to get free gift vouchers at Amazon, Walmart and Paypal.

2. BestMark.com

BestMark is a mysterious shopping site. I have achieved a lot of success with them and they pay quite well, depending on the area you live in. You will be paid to shop at different locations and share experiences. A lot of things like auto maintenance are things that you have been doing. They not only pay you to do that but they also refund the service fee!

3. Ustesting.com

This site is very interesting. After registering and completing the video test, you will start receiving email notifications when new website tests are available. They will give you some work to complete on a website, while you record your screen and voice during that time. You will be paid for each website you review. Usually it takes 15-20 minutes and the amount is paid about $ 10- $ 15 per website.

4. Perk.com

Perk is emerging rapidly and gradually creating new ways to make money. You can download one of their applications, including extremely popular Perk TV . They now have a paid app for you to watch TV at home as well.

5. TopCashBack.com

This site is unique because it gives you 100% commission if you shop through their site. They will not eat less. They are able to do this by allowing businesses to appear on their home page. In other words, they get paid to advertise and this will help you a lot!

6. Zoombucks.com

Another site pays you to watch videos, but they also pay for competitions, completing tasks, playing games and more. Zoombucks will keep you busy when you earn.

7. FusionCash.net

FusionCash pays you to watch videos, along with many other things. They even pay you to listen to the radio through a 3rd party service called RadioLoyalty (radioloyalty.com).

8. CashCrate.com

Watch videos, shop, play games, win prizes in competitions, try out products - these are just a few ways for CashCrate to pay you. That may explain why they are so famous.

9. InboxDollars.com

Get paid to watch videos, play games, shop with other things. I have been using InboxDollars for several years. Although it doesn't help you get rich, it can also help you earn some extra money.

10. MyGiftCardsPlus.com

This website offers very competitive rebates for gift cards in different stores and they are provided by Swagbucks, which means this is another way to earn SB points while being refunded.

11. SendEarnings.com

SendEarnings will pay you to watch videos, play games and even shop at different stores, buy things that you have been shopping everyday. That is just the beginning of what they will pay you.

12. FatWallet.com

Another great refund site is used for comparison when shopping. Look around to see which website pays the most for what you're buying and earn that money.

13. MyPoints.com

MyPoints will pay you to watch videos and play games, just like other websites here, but they mostly refund money on popular websites like Amazon and Groupon.

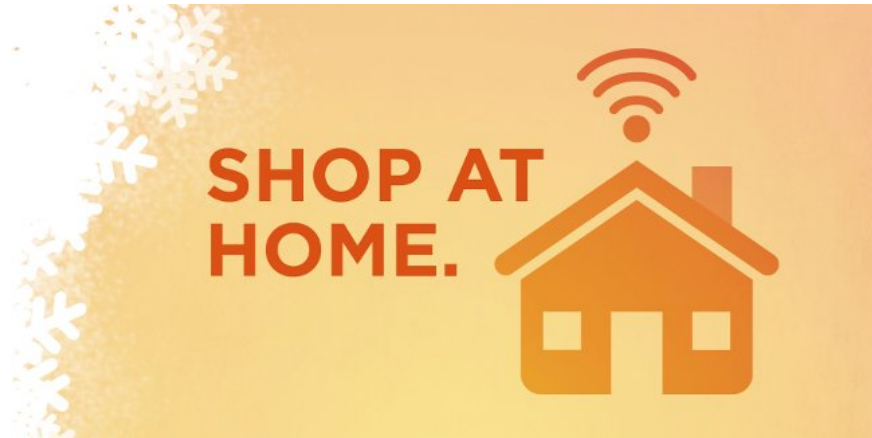

14. MemoLink.com

Memo Link also pays you to do many other things, but first of all, they are a refund website. You can shop at a variety of retail stores online through this website.

15. Extrabux.com

Refunds up to 30% in more than 2,000 different stores! You will definitely find a retailer to buy things and get a refund through Extrabux.

16. Shopathome.com

This is a refund site that seems to focus on well-known key stores like Walmart, Target, Sears and Macy's. However, they also refunded on other websites and stores, so when compared to other websites, they are also quite good.

17. MainStreetSHARES.com

Before BigCrumbs, MainStreetSHARES is a money-back shopping form with a bit of investment. You will receive a refund from shopping activities on online stores and you can also get virtual shares (like shares) as part of their profit sharing program. This is really unique right?

18. Mrrebates.com

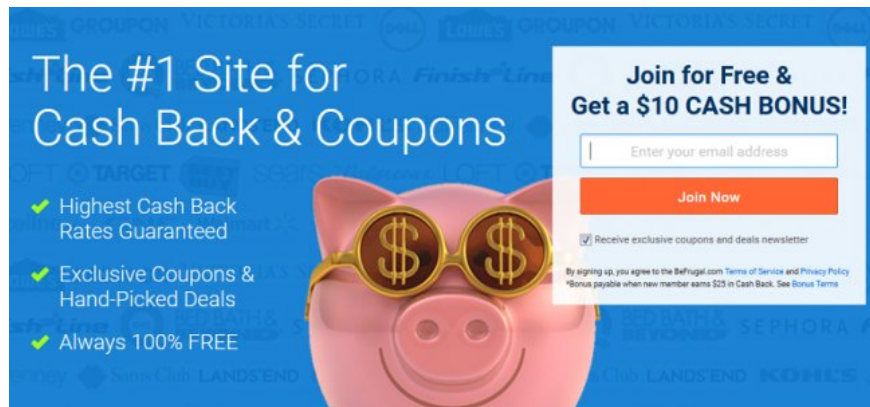

This is another great refund site that allows you to choose between most major stores. They refund up to 30% in some stores , but 5% is the standard for many retail sites they offer.

19. Second-to-none.com

This is a mysterious shopping site quite similar to BestMark , but these stores are a bit different. BestMark seems to focus more on automated purchases, while Second to None focuses heavily on smaller stores. One of Second to None's biggest duties is now to comply with the alcohol and tobacco laws in selected stores. Sometimes, there may be an important task (depending on where you live) that can pay you nearly $ 100 for a few minutes of work.

20. BeFrugal.com

Most refund sites often offer a $ 3 - $ 5 commission for a subscription - BeGrugal 's figure is $ 10. They refund up to 30% in selected stores and up to 10% on Amazon sites.

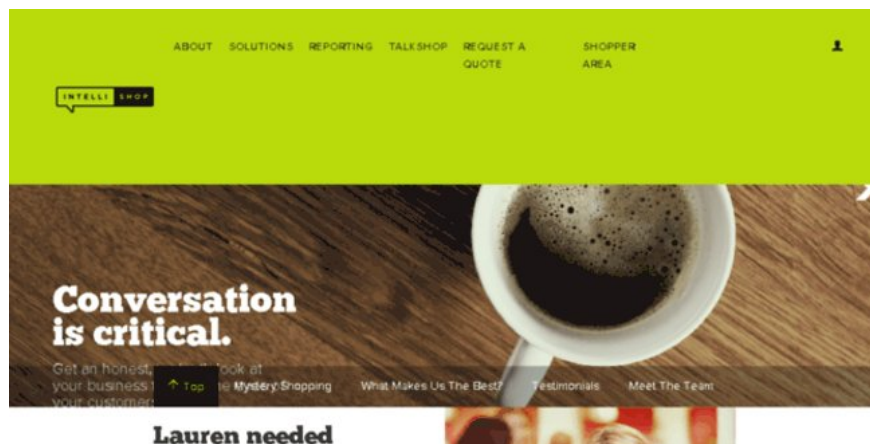

21. Ibotta.com

Refunds at all major stores, electronics stores and even in theaters. This application makes making money easier on your phone.

22. CouponCactus.com

Another refund website allows you to earn a simple coupon and go shopping in a very simple way. Coupon Cactus is also great for saving money in other ways. Browse through their website to find all the ways to make money and save.

23. Intelli-shop.com

IntelliShop is a great mystery shopping website and you can easily register and get started. They offer a variety of mysterious shopping opportunities from a variety of businesses.

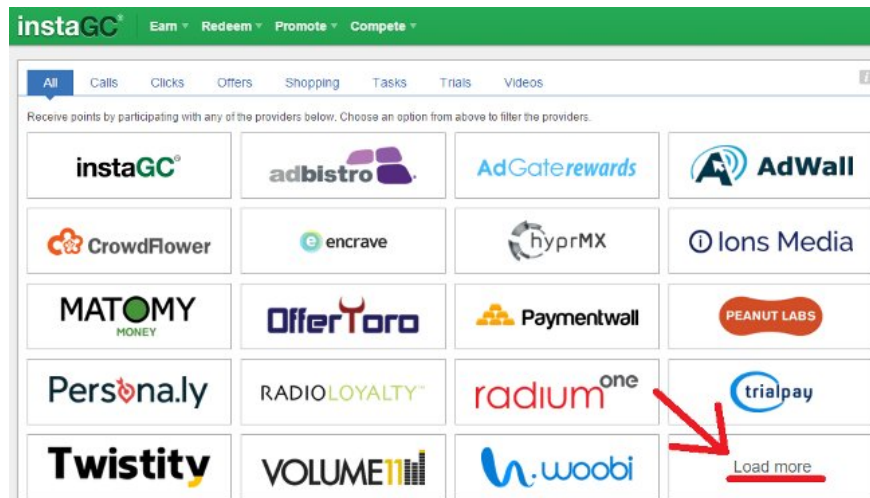

24. Sinclaircustomermetrics.com

This is also a mysterious shopping website. They offer many interesting ways to shop, evaluate businesses and make money when doing those jobs.

25. Marketforce.com

Market Force is a great mystery shopping company. What I like is that they not only have many shops to shop, but you get paid to eat ! It seems that Market Force has more restaurants to eat than other mystery shopping companies.

26. InstaGC.com

You will be paid to watch videos, listen to music, shop and do some other things. They also have very low minimum cash - you can get paid as soon as you earn $ 1.

27. Analysia.com

This site is like User Testing . Each test lasts about 10-15 minutes and pays $ 10. Analysia works much like User Testing - they will send you email when a test is available.

28. StartUpLift.com

Just like the 2 websites above, StartUpLift pays you to answer questions about different websites. The area of the question depends on what the customer specifically wants, but each sentence will pay about $ 5.

29. TryMyUI.com

This website pays $ 10 for 15-20 minutes of website reviews. You will visit the page and then give feedback on many aspects that customers are looking for.

30. Enrollapp.com

These web tests have more fields than other websites, to the tasks to be completed and paid for each test, but Enroll is another great option to register and receive emails waiting to be Tell you when the tests will appear.

More tips for you:

1. Create a separate email account . You can use personal email if you want, but it's best to have another account to make money online. This will help keep your private mailbox clean and easier to organize emails from these websites.
2. Do not use these websites as banks . At the moment your money reaches the minimum to withdraw, immediately withdraw. You will not know that website may be closed at any time. In this way, you do not have to worry about any refund funds you have on the website.
3. Don't forget to pay taxes . You may be surprised to know how easy it can be to earn a few thousand dollars in a short period of time. The government will also pay attention to this. Remember to include this amount in your income and report it correctly at the end of the year.

Bonus extra: The website pays you to write

1. <http://fundsforwriters.com/submissions/> - The article must be related to the text and they pay $ 50 for an accepted article. The article must contain about 500-600 words.
2. <http://www.uxbooth.com/contribute/> - Uxbooth accepts all topics and posts. They pay about $ 100 for each accepted article. However, the article must be about 1200-1800 words long.
3. <http://listverse.com/write-get-paid/> - Posts must be a list and they pay $ 100 for each accepted article. The article must contain at least 1500 words.
4. <http://www.toptenz.net/submit-a-top-ten-list> - Toptenz only accepts articles in list form and they pay $ 50 for each accepted article. The minimum number of words is 1500.
5. <https://alistapart.com/about/contribute> - You can easily guess that these are posts in list form. They will pay $ 200 for each accepted article. They posted fewer articles, so they accepted fewer articles. Post at least 1500 words.
6. <https://beta.iwriter.com/register-writer> - iWriter has a lot of topics and accepts many articles. They pay $ 15 per article accepted. There are no instructions on the number of words.
7. <https://intern.textbroker.com/us/author-signup.php> - Lower wages but they have a lot of articles to write. They paid 5 cents a word. There are no instructions on the number of words.
8. <https://matadornetwork.com/content/contributors-and-job-applicants/> - Wages at this site often fluctuate, but they can pay up to $ 60 for an article if accepted. 1500 is the maximum number of words and there is no minimum number of words.

These 30 websites are indeed gold mines for you . I have used these websites to earn more money for years - I even get a free laptop from these websites. Therefore, they are worth your time to learn. Work organized, keep track of your personal income and you will definitely be amazed at the amount of money you can earn from what you are doing every day.
