

Top 5 face transplant apps for free

Currently, there are many free face-to-video applications so that users can combine their own or anyone's face into interesting and unique videos. Face-to-video applications use AI technology to analyze the face and then stitch it into the video.

If you want to turn yourself into a supernatural hero, or simply a certain cartoon character, you can use some free face transplant apps according to the article below.

1. FacePlay

FacePlay is a newly launched face-to-video application that has quickly received a large number of downloads on the App Store. The application brings you videos of many different topics, such as historical videos, eye-catching fashion videos, . for us to choose to add our faces to the video. The application is highly appreciated for its ability to crop faces into quality videos.

2. Avatarify

The Avatarify app will add faces to videos of celebrities or other interesting videos. You will choose your face to merge into existing videos, thereby changing your facial expression according to the expression in the video.

In addition, the application also supports the feature to change the facial expression in the video available based on your own facial expression. Videos are downloaded in HD and SD quality for your choice.

3. Reface

1. Download Reface for Android
2. Download the Reface app for iOS

Reface is an application that combines faces into videos, animations or photos with many different faces or characters for us to choose from. The application not only crop your face but also keep your facial expressions. After creating the video, you can also share it to social accounts such as Facebook, Instagram, .

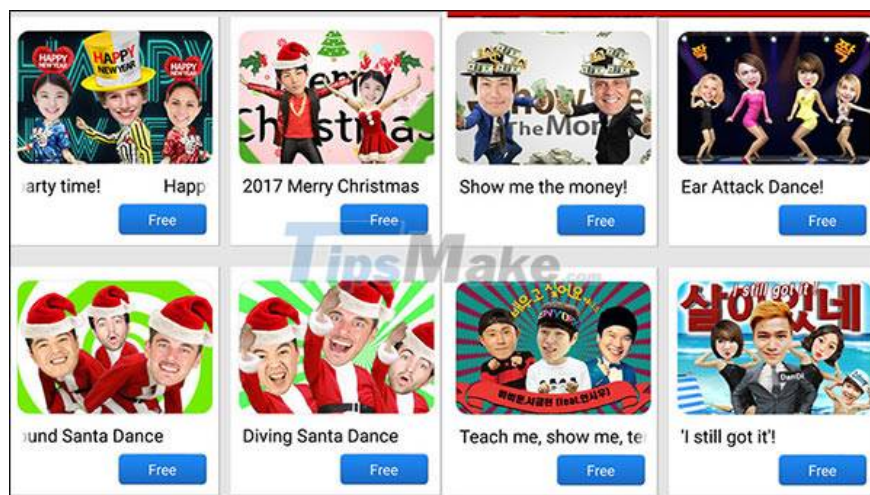

4. Facejjang

1. Download Facejjang Android App

Facejjang is also a face-to-video application, but unlike the above applications when it does not use AI technology to analyze faces, expressions and stitching into videos. The application will directly use your face area to merge into funny and funny videos.

The application owns a video store with many different topics such as New Year's videos, Christmas videos, dancing videos, .

5. Doupai Face

1. Download Doupai Face Android App
2. Download Doupai Face iOS

Doupai Face is similar to Facejjang, using your face area to stitch directly into videos without using facial analysis technology. The application also provides users with a rich video store for us to choose according to the topics we like based on the content of each video.

The sound used in the video is also one of the factors that attract users to download the Doupai Face application.

You finished reading the article "Top 5 face transplant apps for free" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.