

Top 5 most played online games in 2020

PUBG, Mobile League, League of Legends, Call of Duty, Dota 2 are the 5 most played online games in 2020, please introduce to you

1. PUBG

Number one in this ranking is a familiar name. PUBG both for the PC version or the mobile version have rained in the game market for a long time. The survival shooter genre has always created a strong attraction to you. Moreover, after stressful working hours, being able to carry comedy guns with friends is fun.

The game is continuously updated and improved in game quality, thus retaining a large number of loyal players. Being your favorite game is about winning over 100 different people in an exciting role-playing world. Don't miss it, friend.

2. Mobile Alliance

Is a MOBA mobile game originating from the game Vuong Gia Vinh Dieu. Lien Quan Mobile is popular with players of all ages. Achieve certain success when you have a large player base and have many exciting tournaments.

The coalition is not only famous for its large number of players, but also by the 'age' of the players. Just a fun detail. Recently, however, a direct rival to Lien Quan Mobile is Speed ??Chien, which has just launched. With beautiful graphics and a game platform from LOL PC version is a formidable opponent. You can consider 1 of the 2 games above for mobile.

3. League of Legends

It's already a legendary name in the esports scene, right? The weekend that we meet on the Summoner rift is nothing better. Tactics and skills that require players to handle them flexibly. A team game or a family comedy game depends on each player. Although having a not too long life is not too new, but the game is enough to make a name for me. And deserves to be one of the legendary games that you cannot ignore.

4. Call of Duty

Like PUBG COD, there are both mobile and PC versions. And it has received enthusiastic reception from gamers. An authentic and engaging first-person shooter. Especially Call Of Duty is also famous for its eye-catching graphics and in-game equipment and high image quality. You can research battle games on both these two platforms.

5. Dota 2

As one of the legendary fighting arena games. Attracting a large number of players around the world. Each match game has 2 teams Radiant and Dire. Still 5 people on a team and fighting together to keep their part of the territory. Is a game with fairies just team spirit and strategic coordination. To win, in addition to skills, you need to have a very high teamwork spirit. Still retaining the spirit of Dota and being upgraded to add the image now deserves a top game.
