This list will be a useful suggestion for both new players and veteran Free Fire gamers , helping to choose the optimal weapon and increase the chance of survival in every decisive match.

Top 5 strongest Free Fire guns 2025

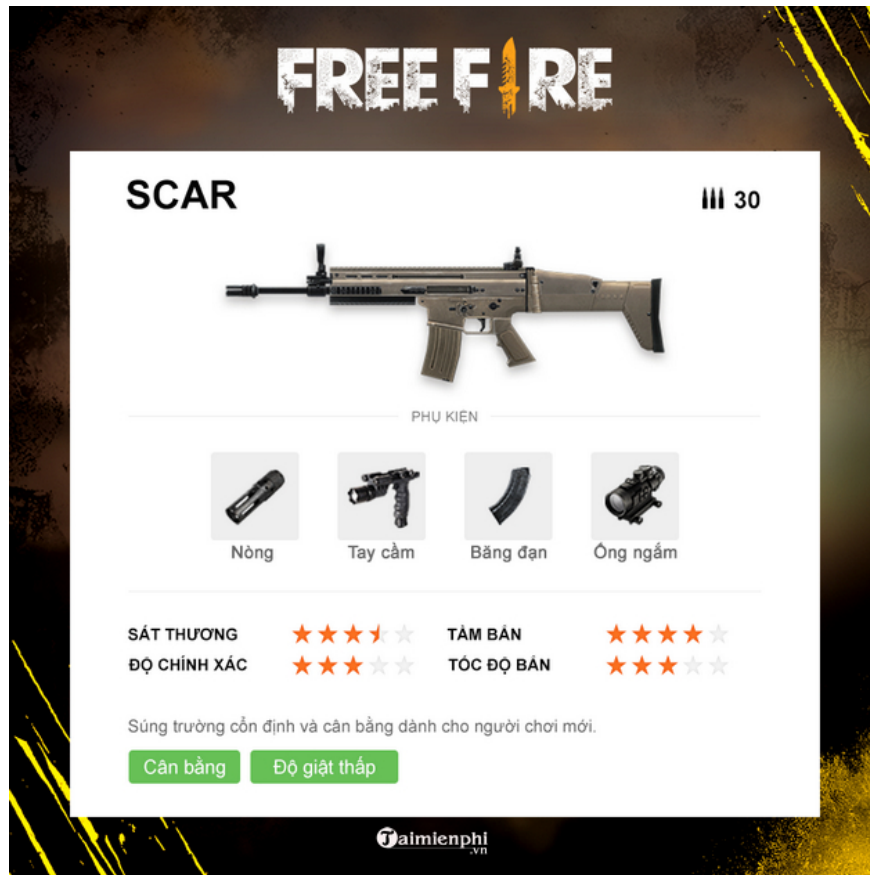

1. Groza

Groza is a gun that uses AR bullets and has the strongest damage in this gun line in Garena Free Fire, or even in other games like PUBG or Rules Of Survival, Groza is still the strongest gun using AR bullets. The ability to shoot from a distance or close range is outstanding, the design of the magazine at the back makes the gun more compact and flexible when fighting in narrow spaces. When fully equipped, this is an unrivaled gun at a distance of 300m. To get Groza, you have to accept the risk of searching in the loot boxes, an extremely dangerous place where many people are also waiting.

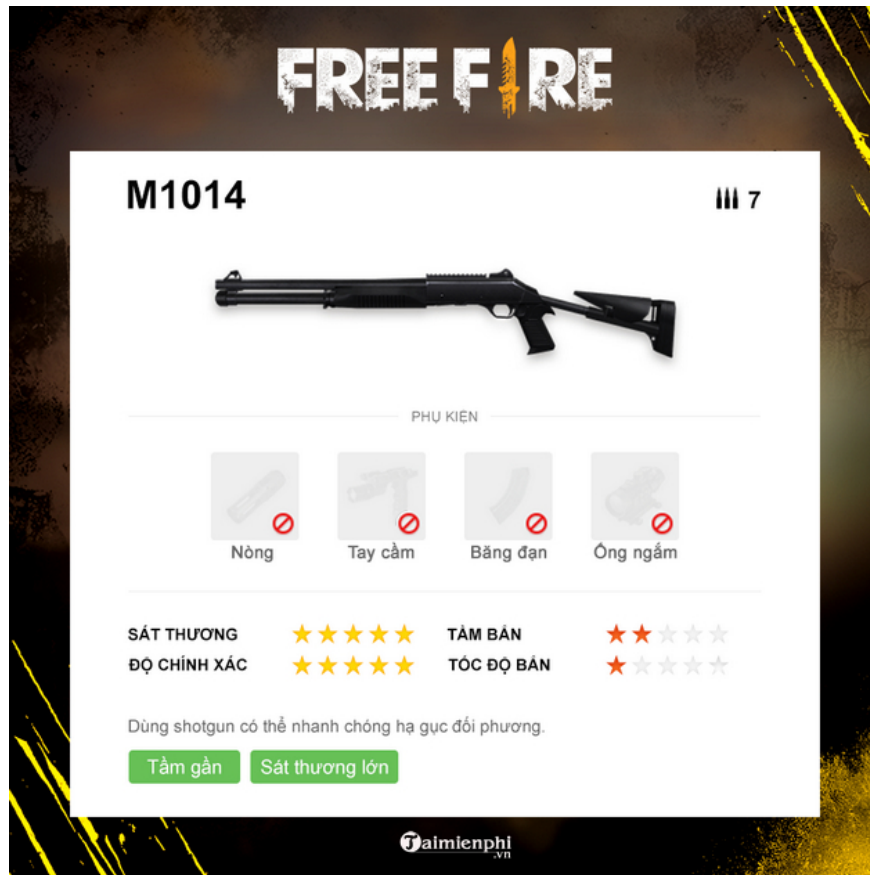

2. Scar

This is the best AR for beginners in shooting games as Scar has high stability, low recoil and extremely fast rate of fire. Scar is the only AR that players can shoot in Auto mode at medium distance and only need 6 bullets to the torso to penetrate the opponent's 3rd armor.

3. M1014

M1014, also known as M4, is an extremely popular AR in shooting games. This is the most suitable gun at close range when only 1 to 2 shots are needed to defeat the opponent. When fully equipped, the gun will have a faster firing rate and the recoil will be greatly reduced.

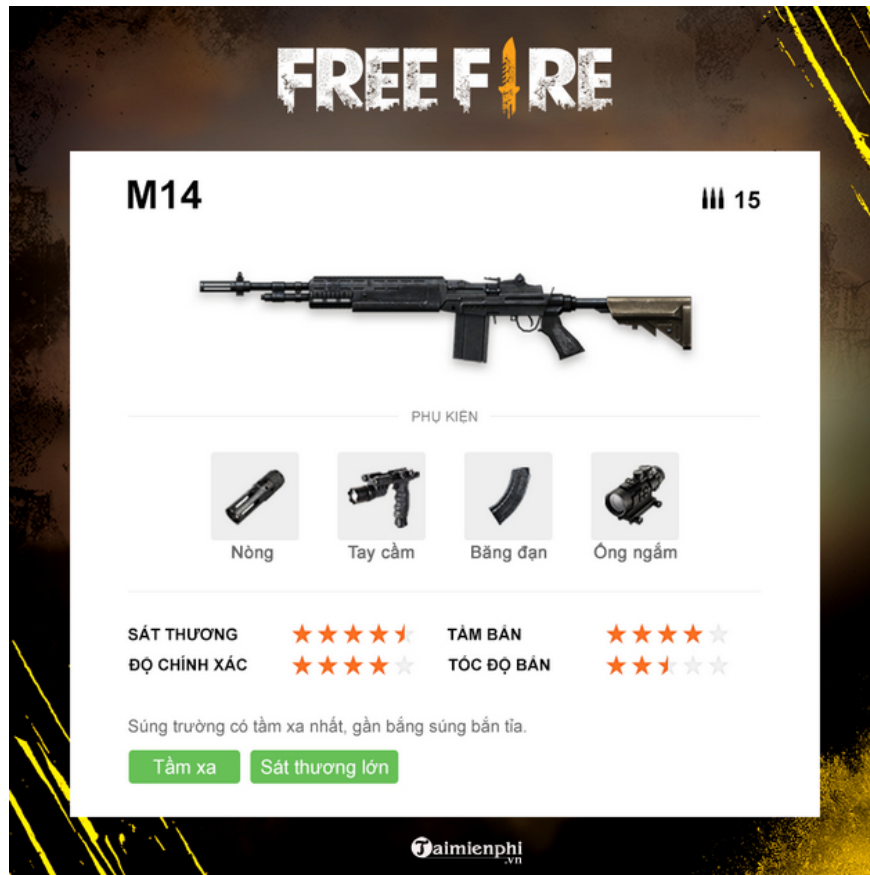

4. AWM

AWM can be called the king of sniper rifles in Garena Free Fire with extremely powerful damage that can take down opponents with just one bullet. AWM is also extremely rare, only appearing in loot boxes, has a built-in X8 scope suitable for aiming at targets from a distance and is extremely suitable in gunfight situations at the end of the match.

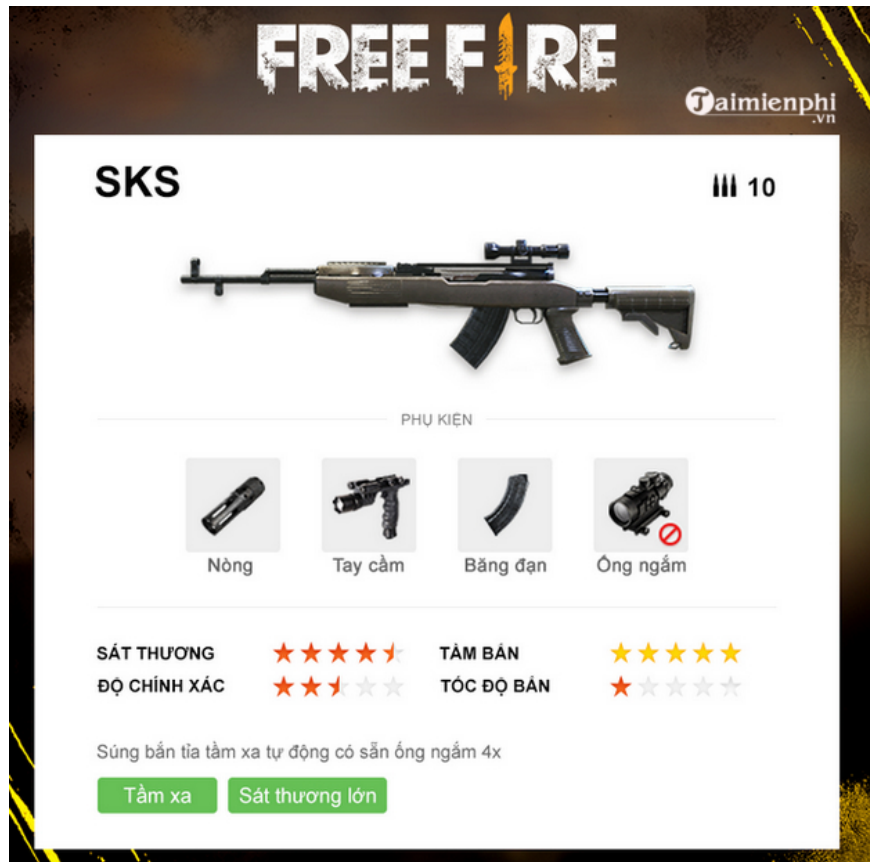

5. M14

The M14 was one of the most widely used guns in the Vietnam War, produced by the US military. The M14 requires a scope to be most effective. The gun can also fire continuously without being reloaded, greatly increasing the chance of hitting the enemy.

6. SKS

SKS is a powerful long-range sniper rifle in Free Fire. For gamers who love sniper rifles, this is a very scary weapon if it is in the hands of that gamer.

Above are the guns that are highly appreciated by many gamers that you can use. If you want to try it, download Free Fire OB49 here, the test version is being opened by Garena for gamers to test the features before the official release.
