Summary of equipment you should build in the chain lost to Truth Arena

1. Atonement Line

Combined by Giant Belt + Goddess Tears . The Atonement Chain works to restore 1000 health to allies at the same time when the general dies. This will help the game last longer and facilitate the large team of personnel.

2. The Staff of the Great Angel

You will need two Goddess Tears to combine this item, the effect of the Divine Staff will help you regain 20% of your energy each time you use your skill. If the game lasts longer then you will have more chances to use your skills.

3. Zeke's Signal Flag

The Sword of BF + Giant Belt will produce the Zeke's Signal Flag. Teammates near the item will receive an additional 15% buff rate. This internal buff will increase the effect of attacking items and your general stats.

4. Giap Gai

Two Armor Armor will be combined into one Armor Armor, Giap Gai has the ability to reflect 35% of damage received from normal attacks. That is, if the enemy has high damage, they will receive as much damage from their attacks. Armor Gai is particularly effective against the Tanker lineup and when you are surrounded.

5. Ionic Lightning

An Oversized Stick with a Silver Cape will give Ionic Lightning, any enemy using the skill will receive 200 damage. This is a very useful equipment for your squad in the late game, but only counter certain roles.

6. Tim Ice

All nearby enemies will receive a 20% reduction in attack speed. In contrast to the Zeke's Signal Flag, this is an equipment that will greatly assist you when enemy damage is far superior to your lineup.

That is how you build your equipment for your losing string, but you can also change the equipment depending on the current situation of the squad according to different circumstances.

But in general, players still have to pay attention to many factors around their matches such as the opponent's squad or the generals in the free turn. From there will help you make the best decisions and win high rankings in the match.
