Knights - Guardians - Dragons squad

Also known as the "Wall" squad, just from the picture, you already know how defensive this team is. With so many Guardians, you can completely immune to all magic damage in general.

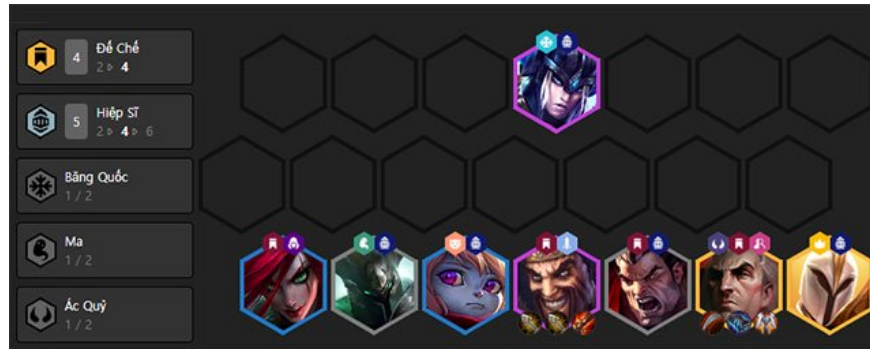

Also, you don't need 3 stars for champions, just stopping at 2 stars is enough. The main damage of this formation will be Aurelion Sol, enough to shoot and kill the enemy team while the Guardians are on their defensive mission.

In addition, thanks to Pantheon's damage, there is a high chance that the blood paper teams will quickly fade in front of your powerful squad. Meet the whole tank team, the Demon Lord Morello will also effectively burn the dame.

Equipment for champions:

1. Pantheon: Thorn Armor, Angel Armor, Redemption Chain
2. Aurelion Sol: Devil Letter Morello

Knights - Empire squad

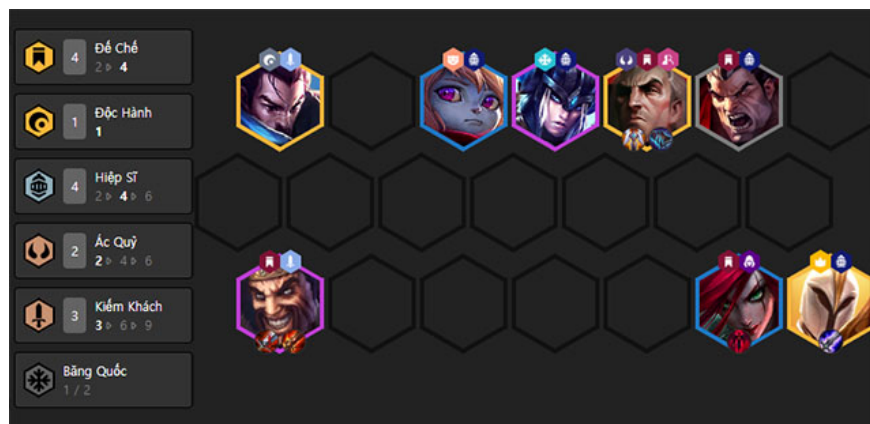

This squad is a bit difficult to finish by the end of the game when you will need both Swain and Kayle in your team. However, if you collect all the elements in the team, you will find that this team is quite strong.

Despite being slightly nerfed when you have 6 champions, the Knight buff will still be very strong if you find 6 champions. As for Katarina, you should prioritize the Oath of the Knights for her to increase her buff by the end of the round.

Equip the generals:

1. Draven: Infinity Sword x2, Cannon Barrage
2. Swain: Dragon Claw, Devil Letter Morello, Angel Armor

Knights - Empire - Swordsman squad

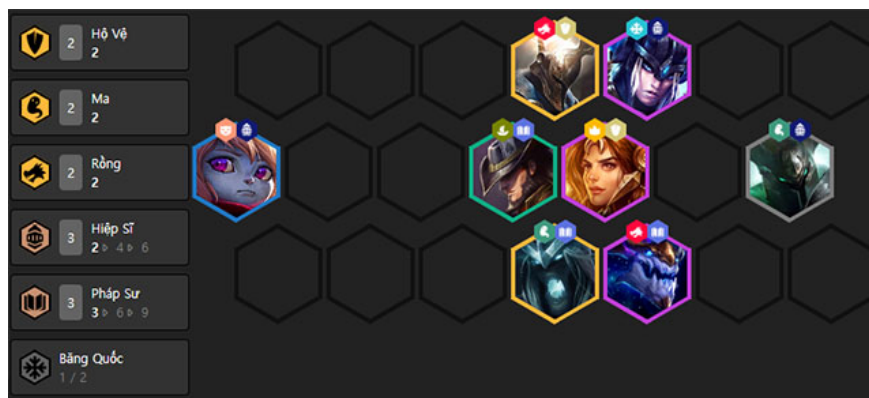

Above, we have a hard-built "Wall" formation, and now we will have a specialized squad to combat the defensive and bloody squads like Witch, Elemental or Guardian.

The Knights in this squad are pushed higher and are more active in damage than defense, the main damage in the team will be Kayle, Katarina and Draven. To counter magic damage teams, you only need to throw for the main damage Dragon Claw and Gang Trap, so your squad will balance the damage and defense and will overwhelm the enemy team more easily.

Equipment for champions:

1. Draven: Blood Sword, Artillery Cannon
2. Swain: Armor Angel, Devil Letter Morello

Knights - Guardians - Magi Form (Knight's Vow)

This formation is very similar to the "Wall" squad above, except that we will have more area damage and reduce the defense level. Especially you will have Witch damage buff for everyone.

Mordekaiser with Karthus for Ma buff team, Twisted Fate, if it is stacked, it will be quite dangerous to have only 2 stars despite being at the end of the match.

Knights - Guardians - Magi (Yuumi) Lineup

This formation is similar to the above, except that Pantheon has Yuumi and the team has an additional Knight, increasing the level of cattle a bit. Especially when fighting with the Assassins and Void teams. If there are many champions to lure, the main dame will have a longer survival time and may cause more dame.

You will build your Knights formation in any direction, defense or increased damage. Whichever option you choose, be mindful of what you receive according to your dignity.
