

Top most powerful guns Call of Duty Mobile

Here is the top of the strongest guns in Call of Duty Mobile and how to use them most effectively.

Call of Duty Mobile, abbreviated as CODM has launched Vietnamese gamers for a while. Since the announcement of the international CODM server beta, many gamers have downloaded to experience the COD version on the mobile platform and including Call of Duty Mobile PC.

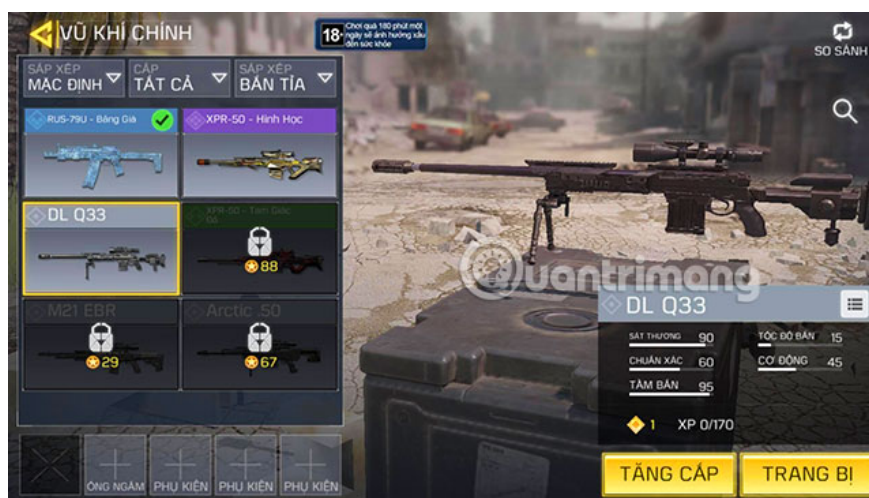

Up to now, the game now has an official server in Vietnam and has quickly become one of the leading shooting games with diverse game modes, including Battle Royale mode.

Not only that, the arsenal of Call of Duty Mobile is also quite abundant and gamers can also easily unlock or own the gun skins in the game. You can get guns from Code Call of Duty Mobile and try through all the guns and find a gun that suits you best, or at least you know how to use each type suitable for many different situations.

However, you can also refer to the list of the most powerful guns in Call of Duty Mobile below and check it out.

List of strongest guns COD Mobile VN

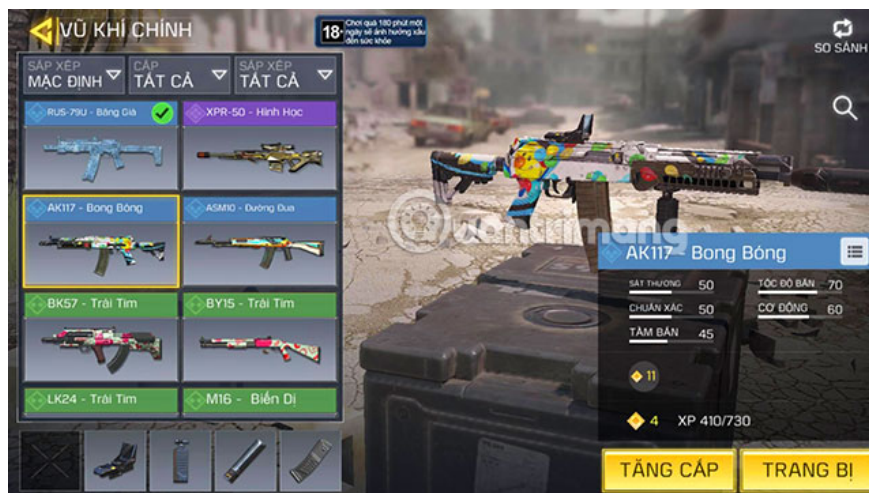

DL-Q33

One of the most powerful guns in the game, it takes only 1 bullet to kill the enemy. DLQ33 is one of the favorite Sniper rifles because of its high damage, good range.

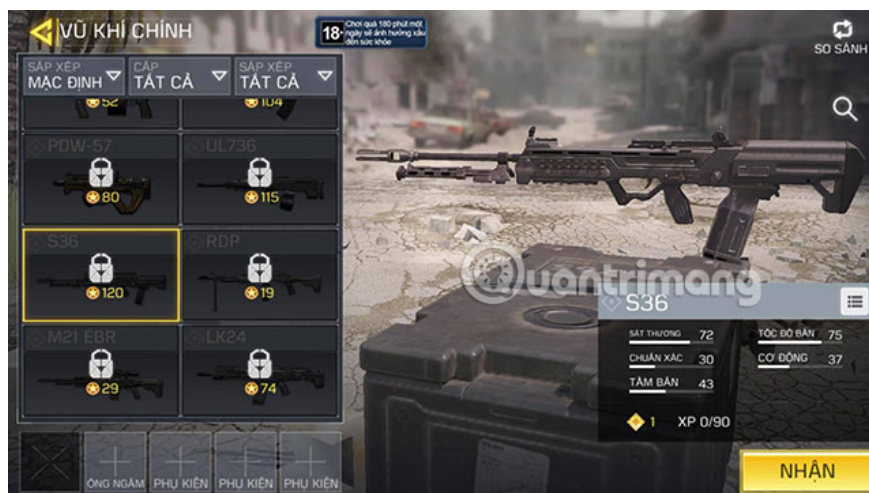

Just adding a viewfinder accessory to the DLQ33 adds the precision of this gun. DLQ33 is also used by many professional gamers, this is also the first sniper gun that you receive when participating in the tutorial screen at the beginning of the game.

AK117

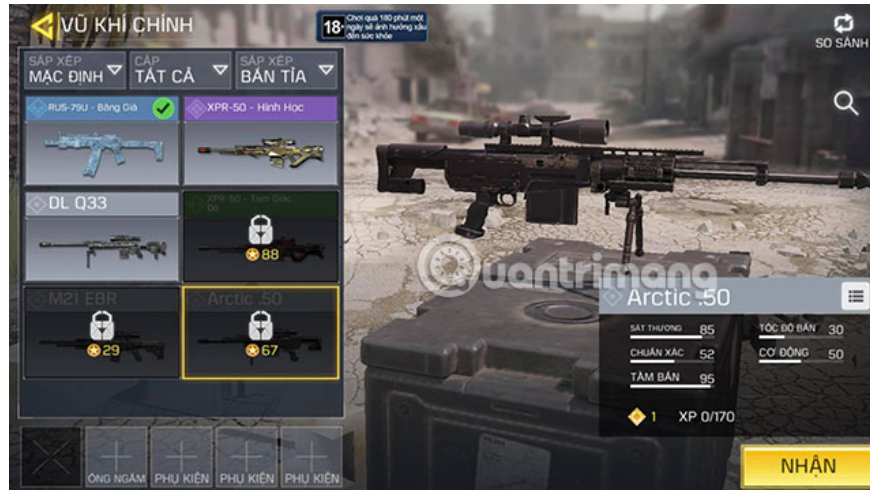

The AK117 is one of the most versatile weapons because of its quick fire rate but is easy to control. The AK117 is more beneficial than other weapons as it can attach most accessories. Just combining this AK117 with the extended magazine, stock and a Red Dot sighting accessory will make the AK117 a monster on the Call of Duty Mobile VN battlefield.

S36

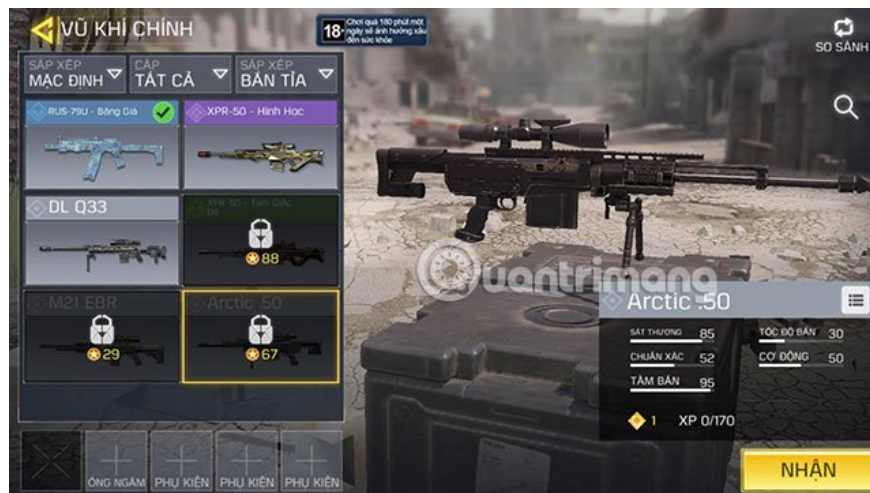

The rate of fire of the S36 is the factor that makes this gun in the list of the most powerful gun Cod Mobile. S36 is suitable for close combat. Moreover, the low recoil also makes the S36 quite beginner friendly. And it can work stably, without any extra accessories.

Arctic .50

Arctic 50 is the perfect replacement for DLQ33 in Call of Duty Mobile. Adding a scope scope and extended magazine for the Arctic 50 will make this sniper rifle perfect for close and medium range battles. Arctic 50 works similarly to DLQ33 and can one shot - one kill any enemy.

SMRS

SMRS is a rocket launcher that can take down multiple enemies at the same time with just one shot. With 85 damage, SMRS becomes one of the best and most dangerous weapons for long-range combat.

Despite its high damage and wide range of effects, SMRS is difficult to use and if not careful. You may be in danger if you hold this Rocket Launcher in your hand.

Above is the top strongest gun in Call of Duty Mobile VN, of course it is effective or not depends on whether you use the right case or not.
