I. Rifles

1. M16A4

Suggested accessories:

1. Silencer
2. Expansion magazine quick change
3. Viewfinder 4X
4. Tactical gun stock

The M16A4 doesn't have full automatic fire, but it's still capable of dealing massive amounts of damage in the hands of players who are proficient with it. You will no longer be able to rely on frantic 'drying', but instead the beam-firing function, 4X scope and silencer will help you take down unexpected opponents from a distance. With its high accuracy and low recoil, the M16A4 will be very unlikely to lose in singles matches, especially when it's just you and the last one left.

2. Scar-LIKE

Suggested accessories:

1. Red dot viewfinder
2. Barrel silencer
3. Expansion magazine quick change
4. Angle Grip
5. Viewfinder 4X

When you're looking for a weapon for long and nerve-wracking fights, it's a gun that's versatile and quick enough to handle the situation. Scar-L can do just that, whether you're planning to rush into an enemy ambush or stand in the 'counter' from afar.

The red-dot viewfinder is perfect for close-up, and you can sometimes use the 4X for a longer view, combined with the angled grip for just the right amount of control. Scar-L is perfect for attacking mid-range targets. If you are the type of player who has a habit of drying guns, equipping the Scar-L with a thumb grip, plus a recoil reduction barrel makes it difficult for enemies to detect your position in combat.

3. M416

Recommended accessories:

1. Silencer
2. Expansion magazine quick change
3. Half handle

4. Viewfinder 4X
5. Tactical gun stock

Not only can the M416 be able to use all five accessories at once, but it's also extremely versatile in close and long-range combat. This is the only rifle that can use a stock, which increases recoil recovery and minimizes grip vibration. In addition, instead of using recoil-reducing barrels, silencers have a huge tactical advantage in surprise ambushes.

II. SMG

1. Microphone Uzi

Suggested accessories:

1. Reduce recoil
2. Expanded quick-change magazine
3. Button stock

The Uzi is not the most ideal weapon, but it is the most popular, and learning how to use it properly will help you master the early stages of the game. Uzi is really a strong gun when compared to other options in the early game.

Uzi is usually placed next to 1 or 2 items nearby. If you are lucky, this will be a very good basis for controlling this gun. At range, Uzi should only be used at close range, but its bullet speed and damage will be extremely formidable, making the enemy unable to react.

2. Vector

Suggested accessories:

1. Recoil muffler
2. Vertical handle
3. Red dot sight barrel
4. Expansion magazine quick change
5. Tactical gun stock

Vector may look rather goofy with its meager magazine, but this weapon becomes a nightmare for enemies when you handle it correctly. Vector has a unique design that minimizes recoil and overcomes major problems with SMG gun control. After adding an extended magazine, you will have the most powerful close-range weapon in the game. Super fast output speed along with absolute 'smooth' make Vector always win in close-range duels.

III. Sniper rifles

1. Kar98K

Suggested accessories:

1. Barrel silencer
2. Viewfinder 8X – 15X
3. Cheek Pad

The Kar98K is a formidable sniper rifle that is a great choice for long range power. While it doesn't have as much damage as M24 or AWM, Kar98K's speed will help you solve the problem. And anyway, a Kar98K bullet hit the target's head, he was still defeated as usual (except for the level 3 helmet). This gun is also very popular and scattered on the map. Its simplicity is also sometimes the lethal factor.

2. Mini 14

Suggested accessories:

1. Expanded quick-change magazine
2. Barrel silencer
3. Viewfinder 8X

The Mini 14 is the weapon you want to have quickly in PUBG because it's a great choice in mid-range and long-range duels. Mini 14 can also become a great companion to Scar, M416 or M16A4. This is the only sniper rifle that uses 5.56mm ammo, so you don't need an extra pocket in your backpack for 7.62mm ammo.

The Mini 14 has the highest magazine capacity among semi-automatic sniper rifles and an extended magazine will increase its default 20-round limit to 30. As such, the gun is suitable for close-quarters skirmishes. central. And even though the Mini 14 deals less damage, it's still enough to knock out opponents with 2 shots to the head, so don't be too shy when it comes to combat.

IV. Shotgun - S12K

Suggested accessories:

1. Recoil muffler
2. Expansion magazine quick change
3. Red dot viewfinder

The S12K is a great gun if you like shotguns, and it's great when you just close your eyes and hit the fire button. S12K has almost no rival when it comes to the fastest bullet rate in shotguns. Expanded magazine allows you to increase the amount of ammunition from 5 to 8 rounds. Reload time is also a problem for Shotguns, but not for the S12K.

The above are powerful and easy-to-play guns in PUBG. If you are new to this game, they will help you get used to the atmosphere in the game quickly and get your Chicken Dinner soon. Wish you win!
