With the top high-speed VIP get link websites that we introduce in this article, those who regularly download files online can download at high speed without having to spend a certain amount of money to buy downloads. account or buy downloads at services like Fshare, 4share. Each service has certain advantages and disadvantages, however, Ytop1 is considered by Taimienphi to be the best support tool as it does not require users to log in, view ads, and limit the size of the getlink file.

Recently, the Internet tipster community is passing around a Fshare VIP getlink website, through which Taimienphi also tried to test with a Fshare download link and the results showed exactly what the online community assessed. Ytop1.com has a simple interface that reaches users well, without any ads appearing when we get the download link, the average speed is about 4-10MB/s as reported by the website. Especially downloading the same file, the person downloading later will definitely download faster than the person downloading first.

* Advantage:

- Getlink is free, no login required
- No ads
- Fast download speed (4-10MB/s)
- Continuous and stable operation
- Unlimited capacity and number of download getlink files
- No download errors , interruption error during download
- With the same file download, the person downloading later will be faster than the person downloading first.

* Defect:

- You may encounter an error when getting link to download a large file, you just need to try again if you encounter this problem.

Step 1: Access and paste the link into the link box => click Get Link

Step 2: The file processing process takes a few minutes, then click Download Now and open the file after completion.

At number 2 is LinksVIP, a Fshare file getlink tool like Ytop1 but according to Taimienphi, it works unstable, it takes a lot of operations and time to get to the File Download section, not to mention LinksVIP also forcing users to confirm, watch ads. But if you want to kill time, LinksVIP is a reasonable choice.

* Advantage:

- Getlink high speed VIP download
- Fast download speed (2-5MB/s)
- No login or VIP account required

* Disadvantages:

- There are ads
- Unstable operation, sometimes both download links
- Limited capacity and number of getlink files per day
- Must use download support tools to achieve maximum speed

Step 1: To get Fshare, 4share, tenlua, tailieu link, first copy the link of that file, specifically here is fshare.

Step 2: Then go HERE and paste the link. The system will automatically get high-speed Fshare, 4share, tenlua, tailieu links for you.

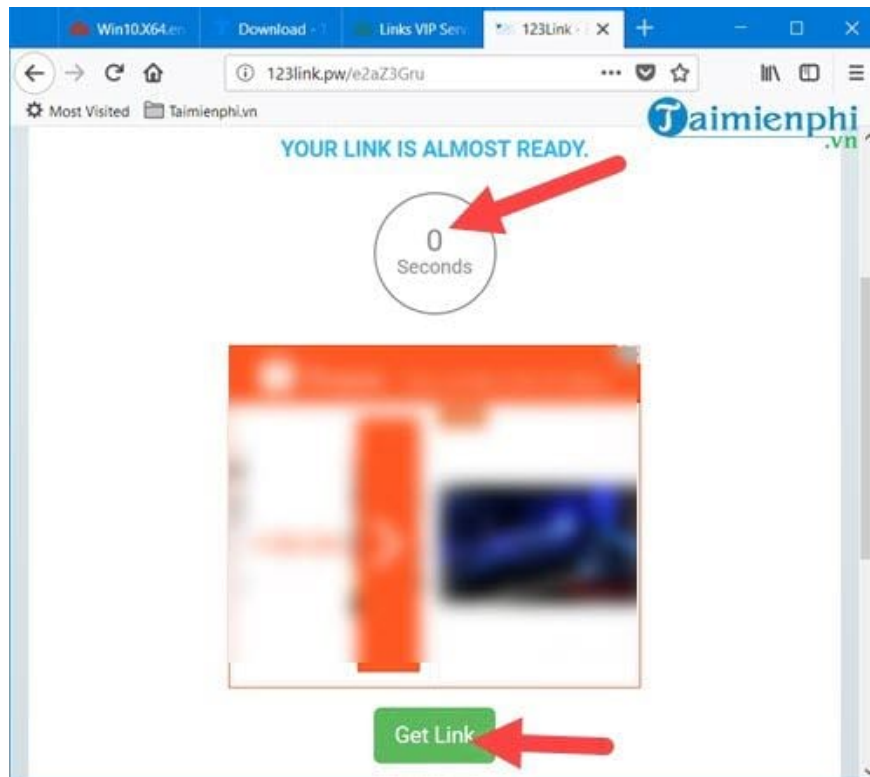

Step 3: Wait a moment for the system to get the link for you and click download to download this file.

Step 4: However, before that you must confirm the captcha first.

Step 5: And then watch a 7-second ad, this is required every time you get high-speed Fshare, 4share, tenlua, tailieu links.

Step 6: And the last step, just click Download Now to download the file at high speed.

Step 7: If your computer has IDM installed , it will be supported with high-speed downloading immediately.

You can check when getting high speed Fshare, 4share, tenlua, tailieu links, the speed is stable at a high level.

LinksVIP is one of the high-speed VIP link get websites today because it supports many types of files and hosts, so readers should use this tool first.

In the next list Taimienphi wants to mention to readers is Linkvipinfo, a high-speed VIP getlink tool that supports getlinks from many hosts and ensures safety, but with Free accounts, it is limited, for members. Free will be limited to no more than 2GB per retrieve.

* Advantage:

- Supports getting links from many hosts
- Fast link retrieval speed
- Can be used for free without a VIP account

* Disadvantages:

- Limited capacity and download files for Free members
- Limited bandwidth during the day
- Cannot continuously download 2 files after getting link
- Must use IDM tool to get speed

Step 1: Similar to the above steps, we first need to access the Linkvipinfo service HERE .

Remember to copy any link first.

Step 2: Here you paste the link copied earlier and click get link to proceed to get the high-speed VIP link.

Step 3: Immediately after that, your browser will ask for permission to open the window. If you automatically set this mode, it will automatically retrieve the link, otherwise you choose allow pop-ups for vnlinks.net.

Step 4: Then you proceed to download the file as usual, and as mentioned above.

And when you download, you will see extremely high speed, completely different from when you download the file in normal form, and depending on your home bandwidth, the speed can be even higher.

At the bottom of Taimienphi's rankings is Getlinkshare, a Get Link VIP support website that also has many functions and a simple interface like its colleagues above, the only minus point of Getlinkshare is its ability to stabilize. Unfortunately, during the download process you will encounter errors (timeout, cannot continue downloading or have to reload) making users feel uncomfortable.

* Advantage:

- Getlink is free, no login required
- few ads
- Fast download speed (2-5MB/s)
- Unlimited capacity and number of getlink files to download

* Defect:

- Only supports Fshare file getlink
- Does not work stably

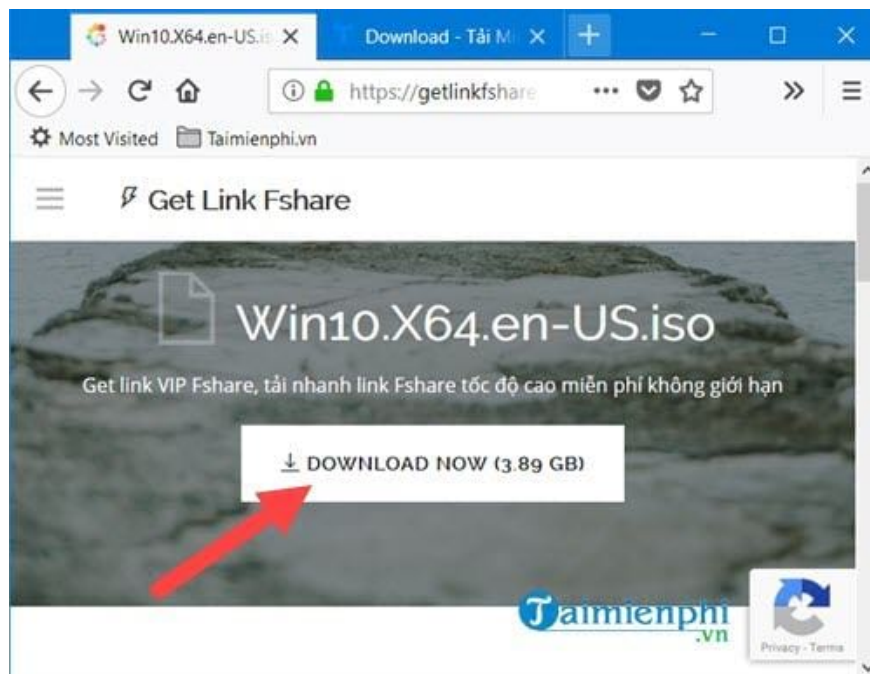

- Download error, interruption error during file download process
- Sometimes does not receive linkget

Step 1: With this Getlinkfshare service, only fshare links are supported, with few ads. To use Getlinkfshare, readers can access HERE .

Step 2: First, paste the link and click Get link to get the high-speed link.

Step 3: Wait a moment for the system to create a link for you, here you click download now.

Step 4: As usual, we continue to download the file with the support tool so that the speed always reaches a stable level.

With Getlinkshare, it will allow you to get high-speed VIP links with full bandwidth.
