A lot of people are looking forward to the next update of Among Us. It can be said that this year 2020 is a good year for this game when the number of Among Us players has increased significantly on both Among Us PC and Mobile platforms.

And in this next update of Among Us, the biggest thing and get the most attention of gamers that is the new map in Among Us - Toppat Airship

Player Among Us is probably too familiar with the current three maps are The Skeld, MIRA-HQ and Polus. Although all three maps offer different quests and terrain. And one of them is clearly the best map in Among Us.

But players still want to find something new, for sure. Especially for players who are familiar with Among Us and often play with friends. And now, a looming new map appeared.

Missions, options in the new map Among Us - Toppat AirShip

Revealed at The Game Awards 2020, Among Us's new map is called the Toppat Airship and it gives players a lot of options. It is not only larger than the area of ??the other 3 maps in Among Us, but also provides players with a number of new options and missions.

Choose a room to start playing

Unlike the current three maps, the Toppat Airship will allow players to choose the room in which they appear. This is not currently available in The Skeld, MIRA-HQ and Polus, you will have the option to appear in the Engine Room, Records room or Main Hall to get started.

And players will have a few seconds to choose where to start and they will not be able to see which region other people have chosen. This means the player will start right next to Impostor, sounding both dangerous and excited at the same time.

New mission in Toppat Airship

New missions in the Toppat spacecraft will include cleaning gems, pulling trash bags out of small trash cans, among other new missions. The way of performing these missions will also be slightly different from the ones you used to do in the old maps.

New murder scene

Besides the name information, we will also have a few new Kill Animation in Among Us. This is something that many gamers have also expected for a long time and before that, fans also "designed" new Kill Animation based on famous movies.

With the information on the Toppat Airship map above, this would definitely be a great addition to an already great game. And surely you also wanted to jump in and explore this spaceship.
