

UFO object disappears through mysterious light cells in the sky of Russia

An unidentified flying object glows in the air and disappears inside another mysterious object, confusing many Russians.

An unidentified flying object glows in the air and disappears inside another mysterious object, confusing many Russians.

1. Is this an underground alien underground base in Antarctica?
2. NASA admits the spaceship was flying as fast as a bullet hit by UFOs

In the Yakutia region of Siberia, Russia, a man named Semyon has returned to the sight of an unidentified white flying object (UFO) glowing and disappearing inside another UFO.

Semyon added, "This unidentified flying object floats above the houses and emits a lot of light. It also creates a long streak of steam. After that, a bright diamond-shaped door appears and This strange object disappears after entering it ".

Those who believe in aliens are certain that the object in the video is evidence of alien spacecraft. But many others believe that video is staged by laser light and unmanned aircraft.

Local police said they did not receive any calls informing strange objects in the sky.

You finished reading the article "UFO object disappears through mysterious light cells in the sky of Russia" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.