There are only shirts suitable for everyday wear, there are also those created to be reserved for luxurious parties.

For men, perhaps a shirt is a classic item in their wardrobe, especially office ladies. The bed shirts like gentlemen become more stylish and elegant.

Each created shirt is used in different situations, some are only suitable for work, and some are created only to attend luxurious parties. The world of shirts for men is vast and you need to really understand them to make effective dress decisions for yourself.

The following article will help you get the most detailed look at the "dress shirt" as well as choose the best and most suitable shirt for you.

1. Always choose long-sleeved shirts

In the fashion world with the word 'dress shirt' - this is the concept of neck, long-sleeved and buttoned shirts on the cuffs. The color shirts that are usually worn to the beach in the summer are not called dress shirts.

In summer, short-sleeved shirts will be the preferred choice for many people, because it's cool, suitable for summer, however, if you want to be more polite and elegant, choose long shirts. hand.

If you feel hot when wearing long-sleeved shirts, you should consult how to roll up the sleeves, this just helps you solve the weather problem, creating a personality and fashion for the outfit you are wear.

2. Choose a suitable shirt

With modern life like today, many people often choose for themselves the ready-made shirts, ready-made shirts often fit many people, but not perfect for anyone.

We still often have people who have shoulder length but the sleeves are too long, or the collar is shoulder-width. No problem, there are still principles and tips for you in the above situations to choose the size that suits you best. Here are the standard fit of a tailored shirt for your reference:

The collar will fit if you close all the buttons and keep both hands in place. The hand can move freely and short enough for the cuffs to not touch the palm of your hand, which will give you the chance to float the newly purchased watch. The sewing point of the shirt shoulder is the middle of your shoulder, wide enough to feel comfortable and narrow enough to not squeeze excess fabric. The skirt is long enough so that when the belt and hands are raised high it does not come out of the pants, but short enough to not cover the buttocks.

When choosing a ready-made shirt, you should prioritize the following points: first is the shoulder, followed by the sleeve, these are the two positions where the opposite person can recognize the shirt is real fit you?

3. Wrinkle or not wrinkle

Shirts are usually produced from four main fabrics: cotton, artificial fabrics, silk and linen (linen). Each fabric material has different advantages and disadvantages such as 100% cotton shirt, it will be difficult to stay long. After a short while of ironing, you will see unpleasant folds appear on the body of the shirt. This may not be appropriate and will lose the formal form you are showing.

But to overcome this drawback, people often mix cotton with artificial to make sure the shirt can remain flat after a working day. If you go out or travel, you can choose 100% cotton, because this fabric is very cool, suitable for hot summer days, and outdoor activities.

4. White and blue: The two most beautiful colors for plain shirts

2 colors that best match most of our Asian men's skin, it's white and light blue.

White shirt

This is the most popular shirt of most men, they flutter across the catwalk as well as in everyday life. White shirts are simple but attractive styles, they are always the choice for the gentleness of any man, and this color never worries obsolete. White shirts have colors like chalk white, creamy white and ivory, depending on the preferences of each person.

When wearing a white shirt, you should choose a combination of casual pants or khaki pants with deep colors like black, brown, gray or navy blue. These two colors together will make you an extremely elegant style.

Light blue shirt

With navy blue shirts will make you very limited for combining many different colors. In fact, light blue shirts are just behind white shirts about the popularity that appears at work. The most beautiful and easy-to-wear set with light blue shirts is black pants, black shoes and polka dot black tie with a good watch with metal wire.

Types of textured shirts

Textured shirts are often difficult to bond with men, as the bed is only suitable for women. Therefore, vignette shirts are often less chosen by men in their wardrobe.

Stripe shirt

Striped shirts will be suitable for office gentlemen. But to dress up with this shirt you need to combine with the accessories such as a plain color tie or small polka dots. This combination will give you a fashionable style and do not cause boredom to the opposite.

Shirt caro (check shirt)

Like white shirts, caro shirts are much more popular than plaid shirts, because the combination of colors between horizontal and vertical lines gives them a sense of harmony and comfort. This is also the reason for caro shirts to be flown with you everywhere, from the beach to the office.

The three most popular car styles you can find are Gingham, Madras and Tartan. This is an image so you can identify and distinguish the three styles of checkers above

About Gingham, this is the only checkered pattern you should use at work. Gingham wearing a plain suit will be a good choice for you when you are familiar with one-color shirts. With Madras and Tartan, with a variety of colors, they will be more suitable for you when going out, walking or traveling when summer comes.
