

Use SmartArt effects in PowerPoint

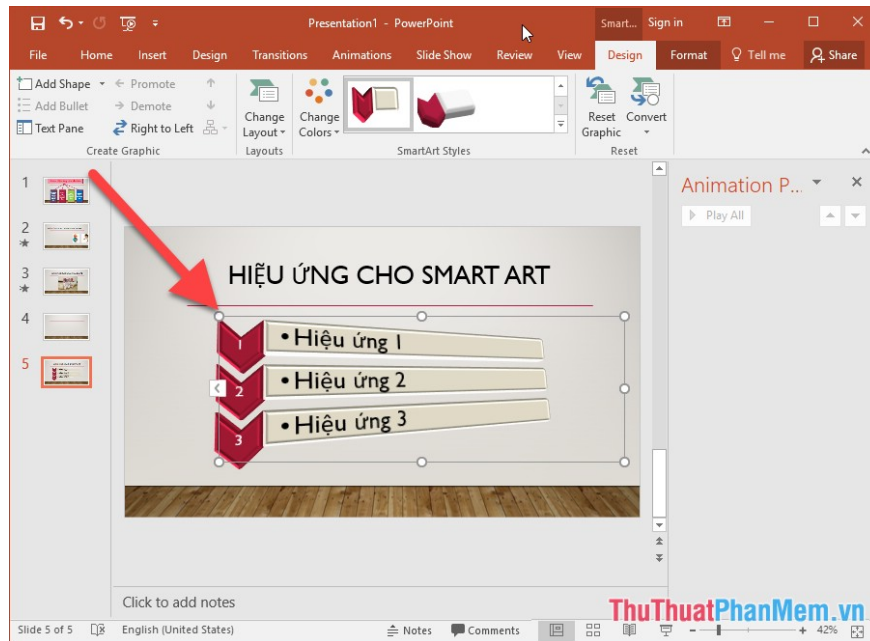

This article shows how to use the SmartArt effect in PowerPoint 2016. To create a SmartArt object, click the Insert - SmartArt tab - select the SmartArt style you want.

In this article, guide you in detail how to use SmartArt effect in PowerPoint 2016.

To create a SmartArt object, click the Insert tab -> SmartArt -> select the SmartArt style you want:

After selecting a SmartArt style, enter content for SmartArt:

Create an effect for SmartArt by clicking on the Animations tab -> Add Animation -> selecting the effect type, for example here, choose the type of effect that appears:

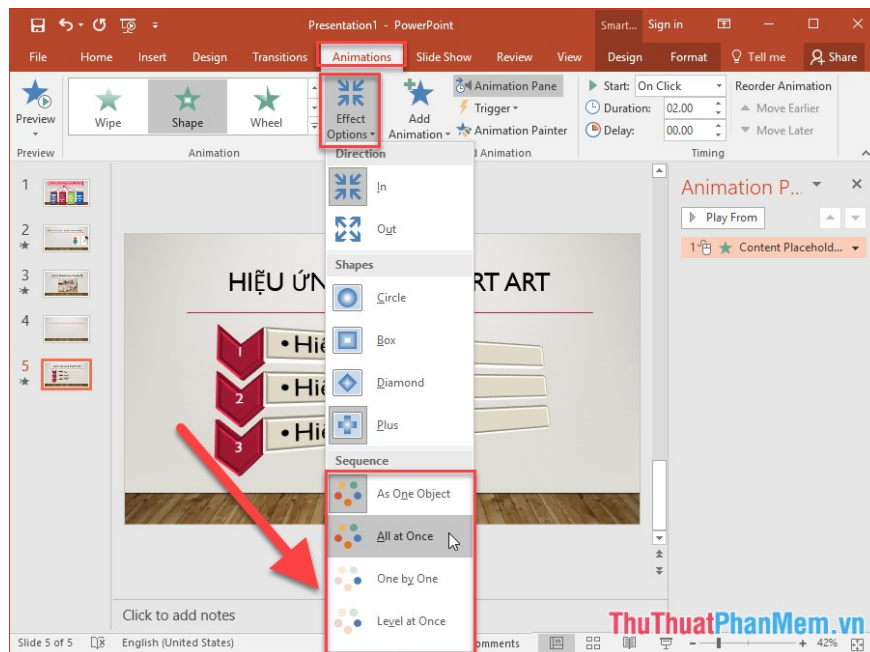

Choose the type of effect you want:

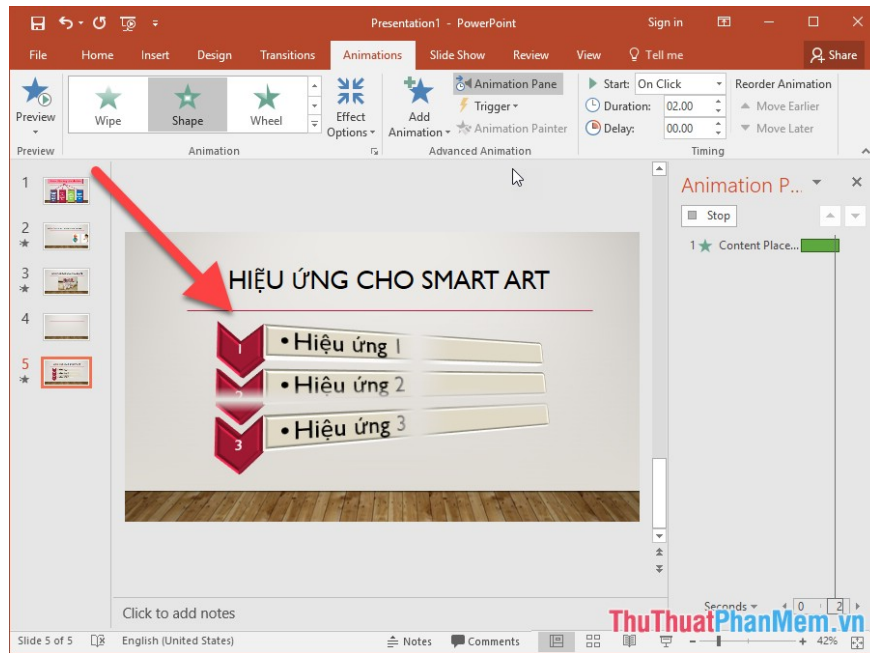

After choosing the effect type, SmartArt object provides more advanced effects in Effect Options:

- + As one Object: Consider SmartArt object as a common entity implementing the same effect.
- + All at One: All components in SmartArt perform effects at the same time.
- + One by One: The components in SmartArt perform the effect respectively.
- + Level at One: Perform effects according to the Levels in SmartArt:

Example of implementing the All At One effect

Example of using the One by One effect:

Example of implementing Level at One feature:

Also you can set advanced effects for SmartArt by right-clicking on the effect and select Timing:

Choose effects in the Group animation section similar to Effects Options:

Select sound effects when presenting objects or effects after the slideshow in turn Sound, After Animation:

Above is a detailed guide on how to use effects for SmartArt objects . Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Use SmartArt effects in PowerPoint" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.