

Vietnam ranked 8th in the rate of virus infection

Kaspersky Lab security company announced on November 10 the malware statistics in October 2009. Accordingly, the rate of virus infection through the website of Vietnam is 2.7%, ranking 8th among 10 countries with the highest infection rates.

Kaspersky Lab security company announced on November 10 the malware statistics in October 2009. Accordingly, the rate of virus infection through the website of Vietnam is 2.7%, ranking 8th among 10 countries with the highest infection rates.

China topped the rankings with the rate of virus infection via the website is 31.3%, ranked next to the US with the rate of 12.8% and India with the rate of 8.4%.

In the list of Top 20 most popular malware in October 2009, Net-Worm.Win 32.Kido.ir, the new variant of Kido.ih that appeared earlier last month, is the most popular malware. .

According to KasperskyLab statistics, topping the list of 20 malware spreads over downloads on the network are two new types of Gumblar variants, a Trojan download program. This program is becoming more and more popular and dangerous and is constantly in the top 20 most popular malware for many months.

In this list, there are worms that steal Trojan-Dropper.Win32.Agent.ayqa and Trojan-GameThief.Win32.Magania.bwsr online game account passwords. According to Kaspersky Lab, the malware spread through mobile devices is also increasing to an alarming level.

You finished reading the article "Vietnam ranked 8th in the rate of virus infection" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.