

Vietnam wins AFF Cup: Coach Kim Sang-sik's hip-hop dance takes the internet by storm

Each post attracts a huge number of views, even up to millions of views.

On the evening of January 5, the second leg of the AFF Cup 2024 final between Vietnam and Thailand took place in a very exciting atmosphere. With a score of 2-1 after the first leg, Vietnam started the match with many advantages, especially when we opened the score in the second leg in the 8th minute. However, Thailand showed that they would not give up easily when they scored the equalizer, then took the lead in a very unfair play phase.

Since Thailand scored an unfair goal, the Golden Star boys became stronger than ever when they continuously pressed the opponent's field. As a result, Thailand received a red card, Vietnam scored the equalizer 2-2 in this second leg thanks to an own goal from the opponent. In the last seconds of the match, we scored another goal to make it 3-2 (5-3 on aggregate), proudly winning the AFF Cup 2024.

Before the tournament, coach Kim Sang-sik promised to dance hip-hop if Vietnam won the championship. After the referee blew the final whistle, the Korean coach fulfilled this promise amid cheers from the Vietnamese team members.

Currently, clips of coach Kim Sang-sik's dance are taking social media by storm. Each post attracts a huge number of views, even reaching millions of views. On Facebook, fans are constantly sharing and sending many comments congratulating the Vietnamese team, praising the beautiful dance of the coach from the land of kimchi.

"Proud of coach Kim Sang-sik, the head coach of the Vietnam national football team, who has inspired the athletes of the Vietnam national football team. You guys did so well. I wish you more success and to be a light for the future young generation ," a Facebooker shared.

"Everyone knows that he hit this match and won overwhelmingly. Keeping his promise, Coach Kim Sang-sik recreated his hip-hop dance after winning the 2024 ASEAN Cup with the Vietnamese team ," Tuyen Tran wrote.

"Coach Kim Sang-sik's dance is so hot again. Vietnam is the champion! You guys are the best ," commented Dinh Cong.

"So happy to have won convincingly. It was really frustrating to watch. I have to say the other team played well, but when they were in a losing position, they were forced to play unfairly ," Facebooker Hoang Phuong continued.

Or Facebook Xuan Loc wrote as follows: "Vietnam has a relationship with Korean coaches. The best players in this tournament are all players from Coach Park's time. They have not lost their form, they just no longer have the motivation to play under Troussier. In this tournament, you can see how well Hoang Duc, Thanh Trung, Xuan Manh, Quang Hai played ."

In this match, Vietnam opened the score in the 8th minute thanks to Tuan Hai. In the 28th minute, Thailand equalized 1-1 after a dangerous curling shot from Ben Davis from outside the penalty area. In the second half, Supachok put Thailand ahead in a very unfair situation when they did not return the ball to Vietnam when they should have.

The turning point of the match came in the 74th minute when Weerathep received a second yellow card for a foul on Quang Hai. With an extra man, Vietnam equalized in the 82nd minute when Tuan Hai's shot hit a Thai player's foot and changed direction into the net. In the 20th minute of injury time, Hai Long sealed the 3-2 victory for Vietnam with a shot from the middle of the field into an empty goal.

You finished reading the article "Vietnam wins AFF Cup: Coach Kim Sang-sik's hip-hop dance takes the internet by storm" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.