

Visit Diep Son island to discover the most unique undersea road in Vietnam

Coming to Diep Son island, you will be walking on the most unique undersea road in Vietnam, dividing the sea into two separate parts, immersing yourself in the beautiful natural world to discover new things.

Coming to Diep Son island, you will be walking on the most unique undersea road in Vietnam, dividing the sea into two separate parts, immersing yourself in the beautiful natural world to discover new things.

Diep Son consists of 3 small islands located in the waters of Van Phong bay, Khanh Hoa. Want to go to Diep Son you have to go from Nha Trang to Van Gia fishing port, Van Ninh then sit on the train for about 45 minutes to reach the middle island.

Unique undersea road

Diep Son Island is covered with a green color of lush trees, watching a few small houses of local fishermen, lying on its side among the clear blue waters of jade. Create a beautiful painting of aqua paint to enchant people.

Diep Son island sea water is as green as jade (Photo: Internet source)

At low tide, it is the time when the road under the ocean appears, connecting the middle island with the big Diep Son island. The road made from fine white sand meanders like a soft silk strip about 700 meters long, about 1 meter wide.

Walking on this road, you will have a feeling of excitement and refreshment with a little fear when you are standing in the middle of the sea, immense and immense, both sides are clear seawater. Feeling the cool water under your feet, in front of the blue sky and mountains, surrounded by the vast ocean, the wind is blowing, you will have interesting experiences, never forget.

The undersea road connects the middle island and the large Diep Son island (Photo: Internet source)

This road will disappear at high tide so you can only take advantage of the fixed time every day to travel and see the miracle that Creator gave to Diep Son Island.

Diep Son Lon Island

Diep Son Island retains its wild and natural features (Photo: Internet source)

Diep Son Island is still a new tourist destination, there are very few residents living on the island, so every landscape still retains the wild and natural features of the beginning. Going deep into the island, you will find green meadows beside undulating rocky cliffs of all sizes. Gentle sea water, light ripples suitable for relaxing, letting yourself float along the water, watching the vast sky and clouds.

People on the island are friendly, honest and hospitable, you can ask for a night's sleep at a local house and ask them to prepare fresh seafood specialties to enjoy.

Life on Diep Son island is very peaceful (Photo: Internet source)

Dao Diep Son has not yet been electrically connected, each household only uses electricity for 3 hours a day with a generator. When night falls, the quiet island is dark, it will be romantic if you bring tents and fire overnight or organize barbecues from this sea of rich seafood. .

Some notes when coming to Diep Son island

1. Prepare a tent to camp overnight because there is no vacation home on the island.
2. Prepare fresh water, rice, fruits . because there are very rare things on the island and people here have to buy from the mainland to bring to the island.
3. Attention should be paid to keeping clean and not littering on the island.

You finished reading the article "Visit Diep Son island to discover the most unique undersea road in Vietnam" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.