

Vivo V19 launched: Snapdragon 712, 4 64MP rear cameras, 32MP dual selfie camera, 4500mAh battery

Vivo V19 is Vivo's first dual-hole selfie camera smartphone, featuring a beautiful design with a strong configuration in the mid-range segment.

Vivo had planned to launch the international version of Vivo V19 on March 27 in India, but the launch event was postponed indefinitely due to the corona virus outbreak. After more than a week of delay, the Chinese manufacturer has officially listed the phone on its website.

Of course, this is a brand new smartphone, completely different from the Vivo V19 that was introduced in Indonesia last month. If you don't know, Vivo V19 sold in Indonesia is just a renamed version of Vivo V17 (launched in India in December 2019).

Specifications and features

Vivo V19 is equipped with 6.44-inch Super AMOLED screen, supports Full HD + resolution (2400 x 1080 pixels), 20: 9 aspect ratio and has a punched design, with a "mole" containing dual selfie camera located in the upper right corner of the screen.

The machine owns the hardware power comes from Qualcomm's mid-range Snapdragon 712 processor, combined with 8GB of LPDDR4x RAM and UFS 2.1 standard 128GB / 256GB internal memory, supporting expandable storage with a microSD card.

Moving to the back, Vivo V19 carries a 4-camera system in a rectangular module, located in the top left corner. The rear camera cluster of the device includes a 48MP f / 1.79 main sensor, an 8MP f / 2.2 super wide-angle sensor, a 2MP f / 2.4 depth sensor, and a 2MP f / 2.4 macro sensor.

In addition, Vivo V19 also has dual 32MP + 8MP cameras placed in the "mole" on the front for selfies and video calls. The device comes with a 4500mAh battery, supports 33W Vivo FlashCharge 2.0 fast charging technology via USB Type-C port. Besides, it also has a 3.5mm headphone jack and built-in fingerprint sensor below the screen.

Price and release time

Currently, Vivo has not yet announced the specific price and availability of Vivo V19. It is known that this phone will have two color versions for users to choose, including Gray (Sleek Silver) and Black (Gleam Black).
