

Warning: There are several websites selling fake train tickets for Tet

Sai Gon Railway Transport Joint Stock Company warned that recently, some websites with a very similar domain name appeared on the official website of the railway industry, introduced and offered train tickets of Vietnamese railroads with higher prices. cost.

Sai Gon Railway Transport Joint Stock Company warned that recently, some websites with a very similar domain name appeared on the official website of the railway industry, introduced and offered train tickets of Vietnamese railroads with higher prices. cost.

Many customers, especially foreigners, were mistaken and bought tickets at a price higher than the rail industry. Even after paying customers, they will receive train tickets that are not valid for the train because the boarding cards will be shaved with corrected information such as ticket prices, train and train dates.

Saigon Rail Transport Joint Stock Company recommends to avoid fraud, customers need to buy tickets to train at stations, ticket shops or buy at the correct distribution channels of the railway industry. Customers can visit saigonrailway.com.vn and vantaiduongsathanoi.vn website for details of official railway agents.

For customers who purchase train tickets online, only book and buy tickets via the official website <https://www.dsvn.vn> and www.vetau.com.vn.

See more:

1. Instructions on how to order 2018 Tet train tickets online

2. Again a phishing website falsely loaded a scratch card 10 times the value in Vietnam
3. Warning of donkey by accepting money on Facebook

You finished reading the article "Warning: There are several websites selling fake train tickets for Tet" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

---