Musk said, he will reveal 'some great improvements' along with 'many unexpected applications' in this new lecture.

SpaceX's main goal is to make flights to Mars at extremely low prices, only about $ 100,000, equivalent to buying a home. Musk believes that those who bravely conquer Mars first will survive, even sustain life for a long time and can return to Earth.

Musk's plan to conquer Mars was announced last year with the Interplanetary Transport System, which outperforms NASA's Saturn V rocket.

Since then, SpaceX's engineers have been conducting experiments, building more systems to support Musk's dream of conquering Mars.
