Normally to listen to music we often visit online music websites such as nhaccuatui or zing mp3.vv. However, we can only listen to music on the web when there is an internet connection, so to be able to listen to music anytime even without an internet connection, we will have to download music to our computer. . In this article, TipsMake.com will guide you some ways to download music on your computer simply and quickly, please refer.

1. Download music on the website Mp3.zing.vn

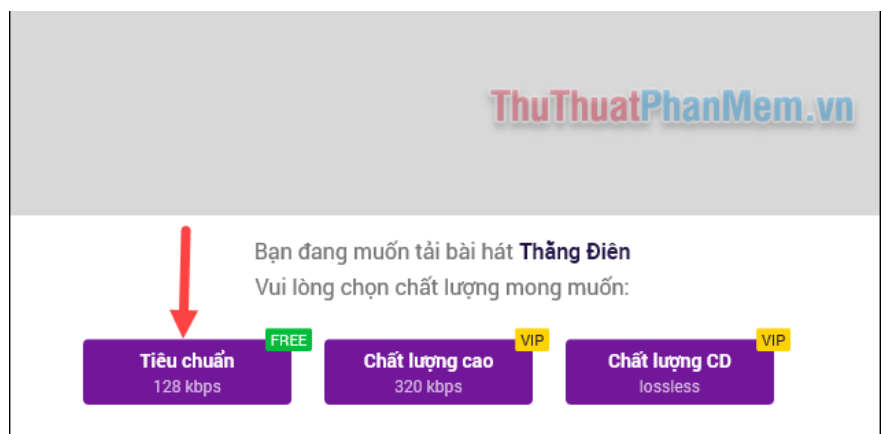

Mp3 Zing is one of the most popular online music websites in Vietnam, besides it also allows us to download music to a computer easily.

Website address: <https://mp3.zing.vn>

To play music on Zing MP3, visit the website at the address above and then open the song to download. In the music playback interface, press the Download MP3 button at the bottom.

Then another window appears, click the Standard button to download 128kbps quality music to the computer. To download high quality music, you must have a Vip account to download.

2. Download music on Nhaccuatui.com website

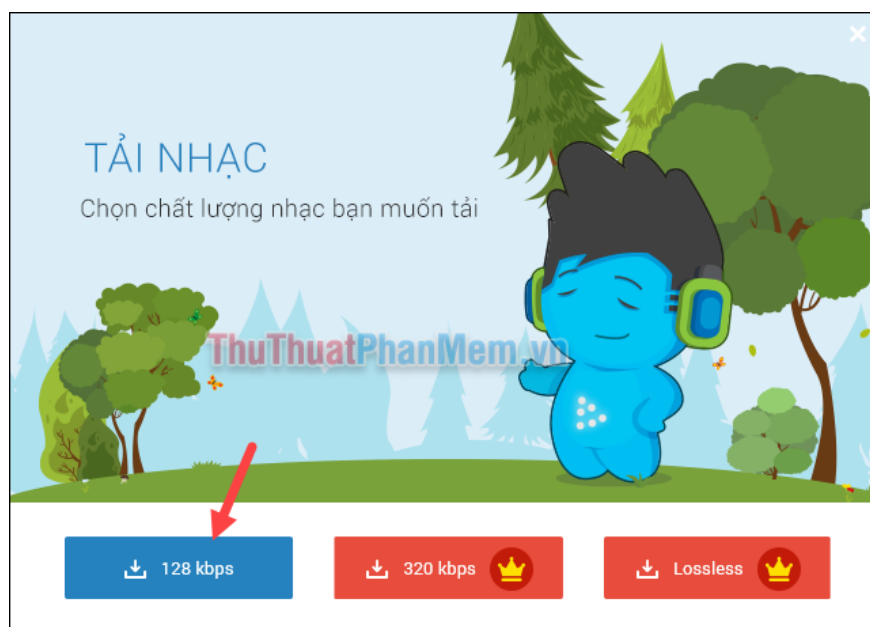

Similar to Zing MP3, My Music is also a very popular online music website and we can completely download music on this site simply.

Website address: <https://www.nhaccuatui.com>

To download music, visit the website at the address above then open the song you want to download. At the interface to play music you press Download music.

A new window will appear, similar to Zing MP3, we can only download 128kbps quality music to download high quality music you will need a vip account.

3. Download music on Chiasenhac.vn website

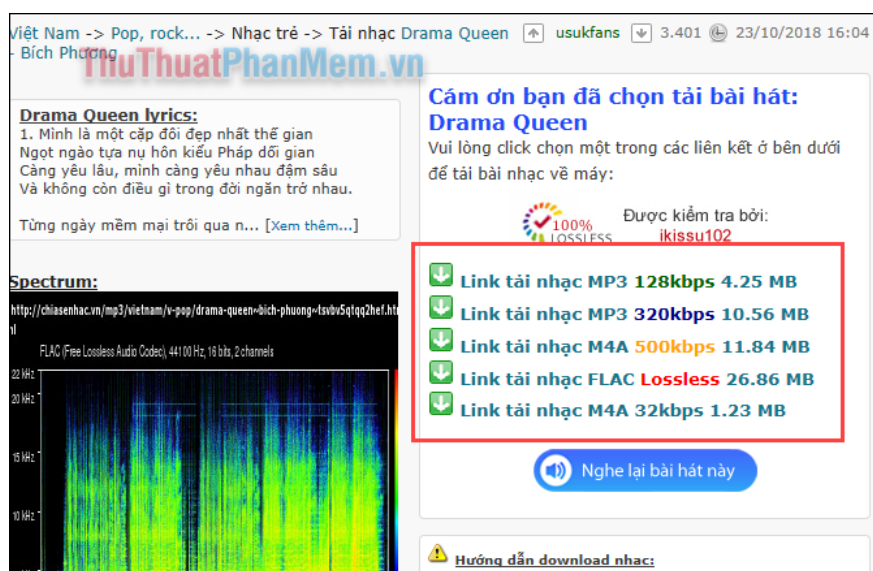

Chiasenhac.vn is one of the few music websites that allows us to download high quality music completely free of charge unlike Zing MP3 or Nhaccuatui.vn.

Website address: <http://chiasenhac.vn/>

To download music, visit the website at the address above then open the song you want to download. At the music playback interface you press the Download button below to download music.

We will be redirected to a new site, where you can download music of the quality you want. You want to download any quality, click on that link, completely free.

In particular, the highest quality music is 128kbps, the highest quality is Lossless format , but we recommend that you should only download 320kbps music, the quality is quite high already. Because Lossless music is quite high capacity, you must also have a good sound system to promote the quality of Lossless.

4. Download music using C?c C?c browser

If you are using Coc Coc browser, downloading music is also very simple because this browser has the feature to automatically start downloading music links.

To download music on Coc Coc is very simple, you go to any online music website like Zing MP3 or Nhaccuartui.vn then open the song you want to download.

Now at the music player interface you will see a green Download button appear, please press it to download music to your computer. Or you can also press the green arrow button on the right corner of the browser to download music.
